THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

VOL. XXII.

ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 2, 1890.

FORCE AND FRAUD WILL SECURE A VICTORY IN THE FEDERAL SENATE.

PARTISANSHIP WILL RULE THE DAY.

The Object of Blair's Resolution to Pave the Way for Limitation of Debate se as to Pass the Force Bill.

WASHINGTON, August 1 .- [Special.]-The republican side of the senate has just discovered itself in an embarrassing position. As it stands now, the senate is doing practically nothing. It has taken a week to go through four pages of the tariff bill, which contains 181 pages. At this rate it would take just forty-five weeks, or until the middle of June, 1891, to dispose of the bill. The democrats offer amendments, and talk upon them whenever the opportunity offers, but they have not fairly commenced yet. They have thousands upon thousands of amendments, and will not hesi-tate to consume the greatest amount of time until the republicans give them positive as surance that the force bill will never be brought before the senate for action. With that assurance, the democrats would willingly allow the tariff bill to pass.

THE ONLY TWO REMEDIES. The republicans have but two possible remedies to extricate themselves from the present

1. Agree to adjourn after after the tariff and appropriation bills have been disposed of, without calling up the force bill at all, which means to abandon the bill entirely.

2. Change the rules of the senate right now, in order that the majority may call the previous question on a bill when it chooses. Apply this to the stariff bill, dispose of it in short order, and then take up the force bill and dispose of it likewise.

The republican side is divided in opinion as to what to do. Teller, Plumb, Hale, Hiscock, Aldrich and Allison would prefer the first remedy. They think the tariff bill infinitely more important than the election bill. In-deed, one of these senators, a member of the finance committee which prepared the tariff bill, approached Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, yesterday, and told him that if the democrats would agree to allow the tariff bill to pass in a reasonable length of time, he would agree that the republicans would drop the force bill entirely.

"But," responded Mr. Blackburn, "will the majority of the republican senators agree to your proposition, and give us assurances as a party that you will drop the force bill?"

"I den't know," replied the republican senator, "but I will agree to do all in my power

"You might do that and fail," said the Ken-tuckian. "When your party in caucus decides upon this trade we will agree to it, but we can entertain no proposition from any one or two mon of your side."

As the majority of republicans will not assent to any such plan, they must either allow debate on the tariff to go on indefinitely, or else resort to the second remedy above men-

TRIS THEY WILL DO. This they will probably do at once. Such a course was set in motion today by Senator Blair, who, after stating that it was evident certain senators were acting simply to delay the senators in the progress of the tariff bill, introduced a resolution instructing the committee on rules to bring in a new rule within four days under which the previous question could be ordered at a fixed time in any pending measure. Under objections from the democratic senators the resolution went over until tomorrow, when it will be taken up and disposed of.

In speaking of the resolution this afternoon, Senator Blair said it was not aimed at the force bill, but at the tariff bill. He said the time had arrived for the adoption of a rule by which debate could be limited, but he further said he was not acting for the caucus. However, as this is what the caucus has decided upon, although many republicans think it an unwise course, the chances are that it will be adopted. The gag rule will be reported and

WHERE INGALLS WILL COME IN. Under the present rules of the senate, unsimited debate is allowed on the motion to change the rules, but Ingalls has the nerve to cut off debate at his own sweet will, and put the motion. It will create a sensation, and probably a wild scene, but there is an object in view, and protests from the democrats will make no difference with the rabid republicans. With a gag rule in force, the senate can proceed with great swiftness to dispose of the tariff and take up the force bill. Then, with the same rules, the republicans can fix any day they choose for a final vote and pass the force and fraud bill. THE LITTLE MAN TALKS. Just before Mr. Harrison left for Cape May he sent for a number of the leading republican senators, and impressed upon them, as best he could, the necessity of passing an election bill. He had been coached by Tom Reed, and he told them that if the bill failed in the senate it would rain the party, and surely give the next house and probably the presidency to the democrats in 1892. This had been made a party measure. The republican party of the country had endorsed it, in its national platform, and he had recommended it in his message to congress. The senate must either pass an election bill of some kind or else the party would go down in defeat. President Harrison further told the senators that he had already instructed the department of justice to prepare a plan, complete in detail, to carry out the provisions of the bill without delay when it becomes a law. By this plan the president expects to make the force bill applicable to the November elections, if it becomes a law, even so late as the middle of Harrison is ready to use troops at the polls if the law will allow him to, and he has an idea that although the senate will strike out the bayonet clause and other iniquitous features, Tom Reed will have the house reinsert them and insist upon it in confer,

However, the best informed republicans of the house say the house will be willing to-agree to striking out these features, but will insist that the provisions of the bill shall only be made applicable in districts where it is petitioned for.

THE CONSTITUTION'S FIGHT. THE CONSTITUTION'S fight, in arousing the south to action, is felt here more and more every day. It has caused the toning down of the bill, and is bringing in petitions by the score daily from all over the north against the bill in any shape. The republicans have, how-ever, gone too far now to back down, although many of the conservative element would like to do so. The rabid bloody shirt element, "Billy" Chandler and Hoar, are leading now. They are determined to pass this fraud and force measure, and with Reed and Harrison lashing the lagging members with the party bull whip, the chances are that it will go through in a modified form by a strict party vote. Then, after having won a partial vic-tory, Reed will come in and attempt to make his victory complete. Through his conference committee he will insist on many of the vicious features being reinserted, and with the exception of the bayonet clause, will prob-

But the bayonet clause is dead. There will be no federal bayonets around the southern polls. Yet there will be a great gang of car petbaggers and republican scalawags of the lowest and most degraded type in the shape of supervisors and deputy marshals, hovering

Let the south continue to protest. Let the south continue to call on the conservative north to aid us, and perhaps yet public opinion may force eyen Reed to consent to the bill being so mild that it will be practically inof Atlanta, reached here tonight. Dr. Hawthorne comes to fill Dr. Stakeley's pulpit, in the First Presbyterian church, for the month of August. His family are near here, in Virginia, and while he will be with them during the week, he will come here each Sunday.

Mr. Snook has been on a business trip through the west, and he will now spend some days in Washington. He says everywhere he has been he has talked with leading business men, and he finds them, of both parties, unanimously and decidedly opposed to the force bill. He says The Constitution's protest has been felt in commercial circles all over the country. The business men, he says, fear it will injure the commercial interests of the entire country, and if necessary, he says, then the business men of the north and west will meet in general convention, and petition congress not to pass the bill. This would be a most excellent idea, and if carried out no party would dare disregard such a demand. Why cannot this be done. If it should be the republicans would be compelled to consider it, and many say it would defeat the bill.

THE NEWS OF BARNES'S DEFEAT. The news received here tonight that Washington county was carried against Major Barnes for congress today, was read with Barnes for congress today, was read with much regret. It is taken to mean that Major Barnes is defeated.

Georgians here fear that Mr. Blount will be the next to walk the alliance plank.

THE ABSENT ONES.

The House Unable to Transact Business of Account of the Lack of a Quorum. WASHINGTON, August 1.-The house resume consideration of the senate amendments to the sundry civil appropriation bill. The question being on non-ceneur-cone in the senate amendment appropriating $50,090 for a light house near Mary-land Point, Potomac river, Mr. Rogers of Arkansas, rose and being recognized by the speaker, said that he wished to submit a few remarks.

Mr. Cannon made the point that the debate was not in order. The speaker was at first inclined to sustain this point, but after a brief debate, in order to save time, he recognized Mr. Cannon to move the previous question.

Mr. Rogers—It is a difference of opinion.

The Speaker—It is a difference of opinion, which this house can and does base its judgment on.

which this nouse can and does have in the ment on.

Mr. Rogers—I have no doubt about that and I have no doubt what the verdict is.

The Speaker—I have not either.

Mr. Rogers remarked that was one point on which the speaker and he agreed.

The previous question was ordered—yeas, 103; nays, 61. On non-concurring to the senate amendment, no quorum voted.

A motion to adjourn was made and voted down, and a call of the house was ordered. This dis-losed a quorum and further proceedings under closed, a quorum and further proceedings under call were dispensed with.

Against this, Mr. Rogers protested, saying that this was the second time that the speaker, after having recognized him, had summarily taken him off the floor. The speaker thought that he had always treated the gentleman with politeness and respect. The chair had not recognized the gentleman for debate. When the gentleman rose, of course, the chair could not tell what he rose for until he stated it.

treated the gentleman with politeness and respect. The chair had not recognized the gentleman for debate. When the gentleman rose, of course, the chair could not tell what he rose for until he stated it.

Mr. Rogers suggested that when no one was occupying the floor, and the gentleman rose and was recognized it was none of the chair's business what he was recognized for.

The Speaker—The chair respectfully states that it is the chair's business as speaker of the house. Mr. Rogers—The chair arrogates nothing. The chair acts as speaker of the house. He has always endeavored to act towards the gentleman with entire fairness and respect.

The remainder of the afternoon was consumed in a vain attempt to secure the presence of a quorum, and without disposing of the bill the house, at 5:39 o'clock, took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills.

The list of absentees is daily growing larger, ant although the democrats look upon it with a feeling of equanimity, the republicans, who are responsible for legislation, regard it with impatience. They feel that they are entitled to the attendance of their colleagues in order to control the business of the house. On the call of the house today the following members failed to respond to their names:

Messrs. Adderson, Allen of Mississippi, Anderson of Mississippi, Andrees, Atkinson of Pennsylvania, Baker, Bankhead, Barnes, Bartine, Beckwith, Belden, Biggs, Blanchard, Bland, Bliss, Blount, Boatner, Bowden, Brown, Brown, Girlord, Candler of Georgia, Candler of Massachusetts, Carlton, Caswell, Cheatham, Claney, Clarke of Alabama, Clark of Wisconsin, Clements, Clunic, Cobb, Cogswell, Cornell, Cothran, Cowles, Culberson, Of Texas, Culbertson of Pennsylvania, Ketcham, Kilgore, Knapp, Laidlaw, Lausing, Lester of Georgia, Lind, Lodge, Magner, Mansur, Martin of Texas, Morey, Midd, Mutchler, Neidringhana, Norton, Nute, O'Neil of Indiana, Owens of Ohio, Townsend of Pennsylvania, Externed of New York, Washington, Wilker, Mallas, Mo

Wheeler of Michigan, Whithorne Wiley, Wilsinson, Wilcox, Wilson of Missouri, Yardley and Yoder.

The absence of a few of the above mentioned members was due to sickness, either of themselves or of their families.

Mr. Cannon has given notice that at the earliest opportunity he will ask action on the resolution revoking all leaves of absence excepting those granted on account of sickness.

Virginia's State Fair. RICHMOND, Va., August 1.—[Special.]—The meeting of business men, held under the auspices of the chamber of commerce, in the Young Men's Christian Association hall, decided that it is expedient to hold a state fair. A committee was alpointed to secure subscriptions to the unpledged guarantee fund, which is only $4,006.

The Farmers' Sub-Treasury Bill.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—Representative Wheeler, of Alabama, today introduced a resolution in the house to set aside Monday next for the consideration of the Farmers' Alliance grain subtreasury bill, the bill to be considered from day to lay until disposed of.

THEIR RANKS BROKEN. SENATORS PLUMB AND PADDOCK

WITH THE DEMOCRATS IN THE FIGHT ON THE TARIFF BILL.

The "Unfinished Business" Taken Up and Discussed—Two Republican Sen-ators Vote With Democrats.

WASHINGTON, August 1 .- The senate met at 10 o'clock a. m., and the roll call showed that forty-seven senators were in attendance. The journal of yesterday having been read, Mr. Edmunds moved to amend and correct the journal by making it state the names of the thirty-two senators present yesterday morning when the roll was first called.

Mr. Sherman asked whether that had been the custom heretofore.

The presiding officer (Mr. Ingalls) replied that it had not been.

Mr. Sherman doubted very much that a change ought to be made. It it were made, he would insist on having it applied to all calls of the senate, of which there were half-a-dozen yesterday. But such a rule would only ncumber the journal.

Mr. Dawes said that he was not present

Mr. Dawes said that he was not present when the roll was called yesterday morning, but was in the capitol, engaged in the business of the conference committee, and whatever criticism justly attached to his absence, under these circumstances, he was willing to take.

The matter was further discussed by Messrs. Butler, Platt, Evarts, Wilson of Iowa, and Harris, all of them expressing opposition to the motion on the ground that it would be manifestly unjust to senators who were absent on account of sickness and to those who were paired, that it should not apply to the past, and that it would be contrary to the immemorial usage of the senate.

Mr. Edmonds defended the motion and said he had not supposed it would offend the sensibilities of anyone.

Mr. Dawes, in a tone of irony, congratulated bilities of anyone.

Mr. Dawes, in a tone of irony, congratulated the country that those senators who have been so anxious to insist upon an early meeting of the senate had found a method for useful employment of the time thus gained.

nent of the time thus gained. ment of the time thus gained.

Mr. Edmunds's motion was rejected.

Mr. Blair offered a resolution instructing the committee on rules to report within four days a rule for the incorporation of the previous question, or some method of limiting and closing debate in parliamentary proceedure of the senate, and asked for its immediate consideration.

tion.

Objection was made on the democratic side, and the resolution went over till tomorrow.

The house joint resolution to permit Captain George W. Davis, Fourteenth United States infantry, to accept a position in the Nicaragua Canal Construction Company, was taken from the calendar and passed.

THE "UNFINISHED BUSINESS."

The senate then proceeded to the consideration of the tariff bill, resuming it at paragraph 63, page 10, under the head of "Lead products." The articles of litharge and nitrate of lead, were allowed to pass without comment, but to the third article, "Orange mineral, 3½ cents per pound," Mr. Vance offered an amendment reducing the rafe to 2½ cents.

In course of discussion, Mr. Vest expressed himself in favor of reducing all duties on lead and its various products, although his own state was the greatest lead producing state in the union. A jocular allusion having teen made by Mr. Edmunds to the farmers alliance, Mr. Morgan said that he would be no proper representative of his state if he left the alliance out of consideration, inasmuch as 90 per cent of the white farmers of Alabama were alliancemen. They could not run him off from supporting their true and honest interest. They might vote even to recognize him as their friend, as the negroes of the south certainly did not, and yet, there was not a man in the senate who would fight harder for alliancemen, and for negroes, than he would, if for e moment they did not reel that ties of friendship bound him to them, that was no reason why he should desert them, and he did not intend to do it. Mr. McPherson spoke of the lead trust, which controlled the entire lead trade of the country. He told of his having met not long ago, in a New York bank, a past owner of a lead mine, who had told him that the lead trust had offered to purchase his interest.

"How much is your plant worth," Mr. McPherson asked.

"I could duplicate it for $200,000," was the son asked.

"I could duplicate it for $200,000," was the

"I could duplicate it for $200,000," was the answer.

"And how much does the trust offer you?"

"A million dollars."

"And how does the trust expect to be able to pay you a million dollars for what is only worth $200,000 and to pay dividends?"

"It proposes to increase the price of the product."

"The offer has been accepted, and," said Mr.

duct."
"The offer has been accepted, and," said Mr.
McPherson, "the price has been increased to an extent to enable the trust to pay a dividend on any amount it sees fit to fix."
Finally the discussion came to an end and a vote was taken on Mr. Vance's amendment. It was rejected by the usual party vote-yeas 21, was rejected by the usual party mays 25.

Other amendments, offered on the democratic side, were rejected, some after a brief debate and others at once. While such amendments as came from the republican side, being recommended by the finance committee, were all agreed to, whether they increased or reduced the duties, or placed articles on the free list upon such recommendation.

articles on the free list upon such recommendation.

The paragraph taxing sponges at 20 per cent ad valorem was struck out, and sponges go to the free list. Then schedule B was reached, which refers to earthen and glass ware. Mr. McPherson said that no manufacturer of pottery or glass ware in his state had represented to him any desire to have the existing rate of duty increased.
He would, therefore, move to reduce rates by the amount of additional probation given under the customs administrative bill.
His first amendment was to reduce the duty on fire-brick, not glazed, enameled or decorated, from $1.25 per ton to 20 per cent advalorem, and on glazed or ornamental fire-brick from 45 per cent to 40. Rejected. In relation to this paragraph as to fire-brick and tiles, a colloquy occurred between Messrs. Plumb and Hiscock, the latter having stated that since the establishment of those industries of the United States, the prices of the articles had fallen 25 per

Mr. Plumb wanted to know whether these were

Mr. Hiscock admitted that they were not, but said that, in regard to the industry, prices had fallen very rapidly after the industry was protected.

Mr. Plumb suggested that the prices had gone down in other countries, as well as in the United States, and wanted to know whether Mr. Hiscock ascribed that fall in prices to the American tariff. It was to be ascribed, Mr. Hiscock thought, to competition, caused by encouragement of the industry in the United States. Then Mr. Plumb inquired whether the idea of revenue had been in the mind of the finance committee in making its recommendation. So far as he was concerned, Mr. Hiscock said, he had voted to fix the rates without the slightest regard to revenue, either one way or the other. Then Mr. Plumb persisted, if any revenue were collected on fire-brick and tiles, under the increased rate of duty, the senator from New York would be disappointed. He certainly would be, Mr. Hiscock confessed, and trusted there would be none collected. The idea then, said Mr. Plumb, would be one of exclusion.

Mr. Hiscock begged pardon. It would not be one of exclusion. He should be entirely gratified if the effect of higher duties would be and he hoped it would be, an increased home production and supply of the home market.

In making up the tariff on that basis, Mr. Plumb wanted to know whether Mr. Hiscock took into account the ability of consumers to pay the enhanced prices.

Mr. Hiscock's judgment was that, in all cases where an industry had been developed, and had become thoroughly American, the inevitable effect was to reduce prices.

Mr. Plumb suggested that Mr. Hiscock took into account the ability of consumers to pay the enhanced prices.

Mr. Hiscock's judgment was that, in all cases where an industry had been developed, and had become thoroughly American, the inevitable effect was to reduce prices.

Mr. Hiscock in diagnetic prices are not only the prices were caused by home competition, but Mr. Hiscock disclaimed the holding of such an opinion, and so the collegant to take Mr

Note that if you did not do it he would git up and thrists you are not not not be the day on our moment was rejected. Mr. Paddock was again encorded as young with the democrats upon Mr. McPherson's motion to reduce the duty on common brown earthenware. The next question was on paragraph 100, relating to china, porcelain and crockeryware, the finance committee recommending a reduction of rates in the abuse bill from 60 to 25 per cent on decorated and undecorated ware.

Two members of the finance committee, Messra. Sherman and Hiscock, expressed their opposition to the sonate amendments.

Mr. Vance made a humorons speech upon the peculiarities of the high protective system.

SERATOR PLUME'S SPEECH.

Then Mr. Plumb took a promment and remarkable part in the discussion, invelgining against the exception, demands of the high protectionists. In the discussion, invelgining against the exception, demands of the high protectionists. In the discussion of the protectionists. In the discussion of the protectionists. In the discussion of the protectionists when the people of the duty on the same invoice would be $31.32 and under the McKinley hill $57.12. The Atherican people were entitled to have cheep goods, if competition could bring that when the people of the United States would get some benefit from the establishment of home industries? its errors. He could see the game of battledore and shuttlecock between free trade and protection constantly going on for political advantage on one side and for personal advantage on the other; and between the two extremes the great body of American peeple were being crushed and ground. He would apply the rule that whoever demanded a tax for his own benefit should be ready to show conclusively that his interest was also public interest. The onus was upon him. The demonstration should be made that every single penny of tax proposed was absolutely necessary. He would cast no vote that did not represent an informed judgment in that direction. But there had heen no attempt made to justify the proposed increase of duty, which increase (he had been informed) was, in some cases 300 per crease of duty, which increase (he had been informed) was, in some cases 300 per cent in the McKinley bill. Even if such an increase were only on some little items, what fact is disclosed—how such fact opened up the whole question and showed how much knowledge the senators needed on the subject. It showed that every item should be gone over carefully, for the purpose of ascertaining what the precise rate of duty ought to be. Not attempt of that kind had been made.

The bill went over without a vote on any of the pending amendments, and apparently without discussion being brought to a close.

Mr. Vest modified his amendment by making two rates on Geograted chima and plain chima, 50 and 40 per cent respectively.

RRECKINRIDGE TO GO.

The Committee to Report That He Is Not Entitled to His Seat.

Washington, August 1.—The house committee on elections, today, made another insignificant effort to dispose of the pending Clayton-Breckin-ridge Arkansas election case. There was not a sufficient number of republican members in the city to make up a quorum, so the democrats refused to help the majority out of the dilemma, and, by remaining in the hall of the house and leaving Representative Marsh present to watch the proceedings in committee, prevented the attendance of a quorum.

Chairman Rowell will make an effort! to secure the attendance of the republican absentees the next meeting dayto dispose of the case. The report of the majority has already been proposed and submitted to the minority for its guidance in making its report, but has not yet been formally adopted. Its conclusion is, in brief, that frauds and violence prevailed in the district to an extent sufficient to warrant the committee in declaring that Breckin-ridge was not legally elected, and is not entitled to his seat.

The Alliance Ticket in Michigan.

Lansing, Mich., August 1.—The Union Labor Farmers' Alliance convention yesterday nominated the following state ticket: For governor, Eugene H. Belden; lieutenant governor, John M. McGregor; secretary of state, William E. Adams; state treasurer, Henry E. Blackman; state auditor, William W. Graham; attorney general, A. A. Ellis; superintendent of public instruction, C. A. Zittler; justice of supreme court, O'Brien Atkinson. A state central committee was appointed, with James Winney as chairman.

THE LEVEE CUTTERS.

The Grand Jury at Arkansas City Returns

New Orleans, Angust 1.—The Times Democrat's Arkansas City, Ark., special says: It has been known for several days that the grand jury of this county was investigating the case of the men who cut Beggy bayon levee, fifteen miles above here, on the 5th of April. Yesterday morning there was considerable of a sensation in the court room when that body brought into court and filed twenty-four true bills. Warrants were at once issued, and while none have been returned as yet, it is understood that those indictments are against levee eutters. It will be remembered that the work was done in broad daylight by citizens of Red Fork county who believed that the levee at Boggy bayon dammed the water upon them, and thereby augmented the damage of the flood. It will be insisted by the defendants that Boggy bayon is a natural outlet, and that under the laws of the state it is no offense to eat the levee across at its natural outlet. They will be vigorously prosecuted. The offense is a felony under the laws of the state, punishable by a long tarmin the patientiary.

The examination of the prisoners, who are held for taking part in the riot, and the searching of their houses, continue. It is reported that those on whom arms are found will be shot. The patriach, in a document resigning his position as spiritual head of the orthodox Armenians, pardons all those who took part in the hostile demonstration against him. A mixed council, consisting of Armenian bishops and notables, assembled at the Armenian patriarche Tuesday, and expressed confidence in the patriarch. It was decided not to accept the patriarch's resignation if tendered.

The council also agreed upon an answer to be sent in reply to the sultan's note, informing the patriarch that he would be held responsible for any further outbreak that might occur, and ordering him to write a letter expressing his gratitude for the aid rendered by Turkish troops in suppressing the disturbances on Sunday, and asking for the severe punishment of the rioters. The reply says that the demonstrations were not directed against the patriarch, but was the outcome of the prevalent despair of the Armenians at the porte's failure to reply to numerous memorials presented by the patriarchs regarding the Armenian church. The patriarchs regarding the Armenian church as a sufficient reply of the council to the sultan's note.

The Sultan of Zanzibar Issues a Decree About Slavery.

Zanzibar, August 1.—A decree issued by the sultan announces that ordinances relating to slavery generally will remain as blinding as before the formation of the Anglo-German agreement. The sale of slaves is forbidden, and slave depots are prohibited. In case an Arab marries a British subject, his slaves become free. Slaves can purchase their freedom, and the master may be compelied to sell. If an owner treats a slave with crucity he renders himself liable to the forfeiture of his slaves. On the death of a slave-owner, without lawful issue, his slaves shall be freed.

THE TRAITOR KILLED.

The Overthrow of Rivas by General Ezeta-

LA LIBERTAD, via Galveston, August 1.—The news is confirmed of the defeat of General Rivas, by government troops under General Antonio Ezeta. Rivas escaped from the capital last night, Ezeta. Rivas escaped from the capital last night, but was pursued and taken prisoner a few miles outside the city. This morning he was publicly shot, and his corpse was exposed on the plaza Armas. It is reported that many prominent persons are compromised, and strict inquiry is being made regarding Rivas's conspiracy. The siege lasted forty hours. The capital suffered considerable damage and hundreds of persons were shot dead in the attracts.

CATERPILLARS IN TEXAS. They Are Two Weeks Earlier Than Usual, and in Great Numbers.

NEW OBLEANS, August 1 .- An Austin, Texas,

New Orleans, August 1.—An Austin, Texas, special says: Millions of caterpillars have invaded the fields in this section of Texas, and planters and farmers are busy poisoning. They are reported as very bad along the Brazos river, and it may be that the cotton crop of this state will be seriously injured. The pests are out three weeks earlier than usual, and they are here in great numbers, and make the atmosphere very offensive with their peculiar odor. The Sun's Cotton Review.

The Sun's Cotton Review.

New York, August 1.—Futures opened at 1 point upon August, and 1 point down on the other months. The close was dull at partly 1 point advance from yesterday's close. The market was a slow one. The announcement of the closing of the Liverpool market for the bank holidays (three days) was calculated to check speculation, which was point, no point, throughout. Weather reports from the south were generally good. Estimates begin to be made of the probable out-turn of the crop in August. Last year it was 66,000 bales, the year before it was 107,000 bales, this year it is estimated at 80,000 bales, of which 20,000 bales are at Savannah. Cotton on spot was more active for export, but prices were barely maintained.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., August 1.—[Special.]—Near Bertin, in Marshall county, late yesterday afternoon, Clarence Cundiff was shot and instantly killed by Frank Owen. While engaged instantly killed by Frank Owen. While engaged in a general conversation, at a country store, Owen was offended at something Cundiff said, and went to his home for a gun. Returning, he sat upon an adjacent horseblock, with his gun cocked. The discussion was renewed, and Owen called Cundill a liar. Cundiff then started towards Owen, but never reached him, as the cocked gun was brought into use, and Cundiff fell to the ground a corpse.

The Arrest of a Negro Who it Is Thought Is Wanted in Florida.
A negro, giving his name as Chandler G. Pride, was arrested by Captain Wright, Sergeant English and Patrolman Taylor yesterday.
He is thought to be a man who is wanted in Sanford, Fla., for murder.
About a year ago Pride went to work for a Mr Smith, on his farm, in Campbell county. While there he told one of his fellow workmen that he had been forced to leave Florida, though, for what, he did not state.
This statement was communicated to the sheriff of the county, who attempted to arrest him. Pride escaped at the approach of the sheriff, and since then nothing has been heard of him until yesterday.
Yesterday Mr. Smith, for whom the negro had worked in Campbell county, was in Atlanta. He accidentally met Pride on the street.
The moment the negro recognized Mr. Smith, he broke and ran. The officers mentioned were near at hand and on Mr. Smith's information gave chase.
Pride was finally located in a negroe's house in an alley leading off Gilmer street. He was concealed behind a bed.
Captain Wright will have him photographed today, and will send his picture to Florida for identification.

Firms That Have Dissolved and Others
That Have Been Formed.

Several important business changes took effect on yesterday, the 1st of August.

The firm of P. & G. T. Dodd was dissolved by limitation, and the new firm of P. and G. T. Dodd & Co. organized by the admission of several young men who have been in the employment of the old firm for a number of years. The new firm consists of Messrs. P. and G. T. Dodd, Ernest F. Clark, H.
J. Smith, A. J. Chapman, J. U. Skinner, N. J.
Wooding and C. D. Rodgers.
These young men have a thorough knowledge of their business, and their addition to the new firm can but add to its strength and popularity.

The firm of Holbrook & Robinson dissolved on the first of the month by mutual consent.

Mr. C. S. Robison withdrew, leaving his formet partner, Mr. A. L. Holbrook in the envire charge of the business, which will go on as usual at the same old stand.

Mr. Robison has not yet made known what of the business, which will go on as usual same old stand.

Mr. Robison has not yet made known what new business he will engage in.

A FAITHLESS WIFE

Is the Cause of a Bloody Tragedy in South Carolina.

Columbia, S. C., August I.—[Specia.]—At Lancaster courthouse today, Rachel Catoe, a bright mulatto, and William Clyburn, a full-blooded negro, paid with their lives the penalty of a moet atrocious murder, their victim being a white man from the city of New York. About a year ago August Hennis and his wife Roxy, a pretty woman of twenty, moved to this state and settled in Lancaster. Roxy Hennis soon became infatuated with the mulatto Rachel Catoe, and it was not long before they planned the murder of her husband. Catoe secured the assistance of Clyburn a confederate. On Sunday night, March 23d, the deed was done. Clyburn concealed himself a hundred yards from the Hennis house, while Catoe knocked for admission. He was let in by Hennis, who received him kindly, and gave him something to eat and drink. Catoe represented himself as a stranger and to have lost his road. Hennis offered to go out into the darkness and put him on the right road, only a short distance off. Soon after screams were heard, and in a half hour Catoe returned to the house, washed his bloody hands, and reported to the faithless wife that "the job was done."

Washington Dessau.

Besides these a number of others will be added to the list. The following circular, scattered about the streets today gives an idea of what the meeting will be:

"Blount's rally tonight at the Academy of Music. Come, and come early. Colonel J. H. Blount and other distinguished gentlemen will address the monster crowd. Bonfires will make the streets as bright as day. Cannon will boom and bands will play. Everybody will have a red-hot time."

INTEREST OVER THE PRIMARIES.

There is considerable interest in Macon to over today's result in the congressional election between Blount and Hughes in Upson, Butts and Twiggs counties. At a late hour tonight informa-tion was very meagre. Reports from Upson say that Hughes will carry the county two to one. As Twiggs is Hughes's late home it is generally conceded he will carry it. The news received from Butts is highly gratifying to Mr. Blount. Hughes and Charlie Bartlett spoke today at Monticello, Jasper county. Bartlett represented Blount. Blount will speak at Monticello tomorrow morning, and will return and speak at the mass meeting tomorrow night. Tonight Blount claims that four of Jones's county's six delegates will vote for him. The Hughes men are very hopeful tonight; Blount's friends are equally confident.

THE HUGHES MEETING.

Lively Anecdote.

MACON, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—A very en-thusiastic Hughes meeting took place at the Hotel Lanier tonight. Committees were appointed for work on the day of the primary, and other minor business transacted. A very important matter took place in the meeting. Colonel Hughes was informed that a report was circulated that Colonel Blount made use of a certain indecen anecdote in his speech in Jackson. He was asked if it was true. He admitted that it was, and said he denounced it on the stand at the time. He also stated that there was a young girl in the audience. at the time the anecdote was told. Colonel Hughes said he could furnish 200 witnesses, who heard it. He then, by request, furnished a writ-ten copy of the anecdote, which your reporter now has before him. The Hughes men challenge Colo-mel Blount to deny the charge, either in print or public speech. Colonel Blount, they claim, must deny it or place his son, who said the report was an infamous lie, in a speech at the Blount meet-ing last night, in an embarrassing position. If Colonel Blount denies, the Hughes men say they stand ready with affidavits from leading citizens of Butts county to prove it. The article cannot be reproduced in print.

How the Vote Stands. There are thirty votes in the sixth district convention. Sixteen will nominate. Blount has carried Baldwin, 2: Crawford, 2 Butts, 2; Pike, 4, and Jones, 1, making 11. Hughes has carried Upson, 2; Twiggs, 2; Wilkinson, 2, and Jones, 1, making 7.

The best opinion seems to be that Hugher will carry Monroe today, whose four votes will make him even with Blount.
On Monday Jasper is likely to give her two votes to Blount.

This would leave the figures: Blount, 13;

Bibb county's six votes will have to decide the victory, hence the great interest centered in Macon.

HUGHES CARRIES UPSON.

The Indications Are That He Beats Blount

Two to One. THOMASTON, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—In the nomination for congressman today, Hughes's majority over Blount was forty at this place, and the precincts heard from make Hughes far in the lead. It is now considered that Upson county will give Hughes almost two to one.

Blount Carries Butts.

JACKSON, Ga., August 1.-[Special.]-Butts goes for Blount. The contest closed tonight was the hottest in the history of Butts. Hughes rallied forces in every part of the county, and his and fought to carry the county for him. unt's friends were not to be outdone, but met them at every precinct, and the returns tonight show a good round majority for their standby. Blount's friends are rejoicing at their good allianceman and solid farmer, beat J. A. McMichael, another good allianceman, seventy-one for representative. The vote for the other candidates will be given tomorrow. The total vote is Blount 471, Hughes 412, Smith 476, McMichael 405.

Neither Colonel Winn or Pickett were on the ground. The prospective candidates for county offices were out in full force.

THE RICHMOND DEMOCRATS Will Vote for Wright and Henderson in Particular.

August A., Ga., August I.,—[Special.]—The citizens of Richmond county held a mass meeting at the courthouse tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Major Joseph B. Cumming was chairman. The following delegates were elected to the gubernatorial convention, and instructed to vote for Northen for gov ernor, with all the state officers, General Wrigh and the Hon. J.T. Henderson in particular: Patrick

Tom Murray.

The committee go to the convention uninstructed. According to the rotation system Jefferson county is entitled to the senatorship, and two of her hon-ored sons, Messrs. G. M. Warren and Ed Hunter, are candidates for that office. Governor Gordon was endorsed for the United States senate, and Judge H. P. Roney was unanimously endorsed for re-election to the office of judge of the Augusta circuit.

The new executive committee to be appointed by the chairman will decide whether the five candidates who are running for Richmond's three seats in the next legislature, shall be nominated, in a primary or be elected in a scrub race. The meeting was harmonious throughout.

THE PUTNAM COUNTY ALLIANCE Opposes the Candidacy of Alliance Officers for Political Places.

EATONTON, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—The Putnam County Alliance at the meeting on July 29th nam County Alliance at the meeting on July 29th passed the following resolution:

Resolved, 1. That our delegate to the State Alliance soon to convene in Atlanta, is hereby instructed to use his best efforts to secure the election of state officers from that of president down, who, in his judgment, will not use such office for their personal or political preferment, and the great injury of our order.

2. That the office of president of the State Alliance of Georgia ought to fill the full measure of any brother's ambition, and he should, in the judgment of this alliance, hold himself aloof from partisan politics.

Judge Lawson in Greene.

GREENESBORO, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—Politics in Greene county are warmer than for years.

Five candidates are in the field, and each is working for all they are worth to secure the endorsement of the voters at the polls tomorrow.

Today was a field day for them all. A large crowd was in town, drawn by the fact that Judge Lawson would address them. Before the speaking the candidates mingled with the people, and urged their claims, with what success will be known tomorrow. Judge Lawson in Greene.

ing the caudidates mingled with the people, and urged their claims, with what success will be known tomorrow.

Judge Lawson spoke at noon for two hours, and it was one of the most logical, close-reasoned and effective speeches delivered by him during the campaign. Judge Lawson was at home in Greene, and he spoke to the people as home people, appealing to reason, not prejudice or passion. During the two hours he spoke, not more than half a dozen men, if that, left the hall, and those were men called away by business.

Judge Lawson was introduced by Dr. W. E. Adams, in remarks that drew applanse, which increased as Judge Lawson rose. Judge Lawson paid a high compliment to Greene county and her people, their intelligence. He felt he was at home when he spoke to them. Entering upon his speech, he said that the greatest political evil from which the people suffered was the evil of taxation. The levying of tax was right, but only so far as necessary to the economical administration of the government. When taxation passed that point, it became an evil. When the government levies taxes for other than its legitimate needs, we depart from the democratic principles of our fathers. This brought him to the discussion of the tariff, and the question was ably handled. He referred to protection, and how it bore upon the people.

Judge Lawson's strongest point, perhaps, was upon the subtreasury bill. He advocated a system of state banks as before the war, the removal of the ten per cent tax from these institutions, and allowing the banks to be started in every community, where they were needed. This would give a flexible currency, and would give a flexible currency and would give a flexible currency and would give a flexible currency and would give a flexible currency.

and allowing the banks to be started in every community, where they were needed. This would give a fexible currency, and would give farmers relief. The farmers wanted the subtreasury bill or something better. He offered a renewal of the state banks as a better plan.

He was willing to stand on the state bank system and pledge his reputation. He went further. If the farmers insist that the subtreasury bill is the better plan, he would support it. Should it not relieve them, then the responsibility of it must rest on the farmers.

The legislative race is so close that it is impossible to name the men. All are good men, and only the primary can tell who is most popular.

Catoosa Selects Delegates.

RINGGOLD, ¡Ga., August 1 .- [Special.] - Catoos held no primary today, but the county democratic convened in connection with a mass eeting, and selected the following delegates to the gubernatorial convention:

W. Trox Bankston, G. P. Harris, W. T. Clark,
W. H. Hargrove. They were instructed to vote for Northen for governor, Nesbitt for commissioner of agriculture, and Lester for attorney general. In regard to other state house office they are uninstructed. The delegates to the co they are uninstructed. The delegates to the congressional convention were instructed for Everett. They consisted of R. M. Morris, B. F. Harris, J. M. Edwards and A. C. Millican. The convention were unanimously in favor of R. M. W. Glenn for the senate. W. J. Whitsit was the favorite in a general canvass for the legislature. The alliance will not endorse any candidate in Catoosa county.

Politics in Oglethorpe.

LEXINGTON, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—County politics are warming up. Sheriff Maxwell and Winn are opposed by ex-Sheriff Mark Young and Winn are opposed by ex-Sheriff Mark Young and W. C. Stevens. Clerk George H. Lester will not have any opposition. This will complete his fittieth year as clerk. Treasurer W. T. Young is opposed by Mr. E. I. Reynolds. Judge of Ordinary Joel J. Bacon will not have any opposition. Tax Assessor Bray will be opposed by ex-Assessor John T. England. The office of tax collector has five aspirants. The present incumbent, John W. Bridges, is opposed by ex-Tax Collector Charles Amason. Amason.

It is rumored that John C. G. Stevens will come out for the legislature in opposition to the recommendation of the alliance candidates.

The Result in Milton.

WARSAW, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—The pri-mary in Milton county resulted in all of the presmary in Milton county resulted in all of the present state house officers carrying the county, except Attorney General Anderson, who was defeated by Judge Lester. For congress, Hon. T. E. Winn carries the county by a small majority over Tate. J. H. Johnson was nominated for the senate by 189 majority over A. S. Bell. A. W. Devore beats D. R. Hook two to one for representative. The county polled nearly a thousand votes, one of the largest that has been polled for many years. The farmers are congratulating themselves on their victory.

The Delegates from Polk. CEDARTOWN, GA., Aug. 1. -[Special.] - At CEDARTOWN, GA., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—At Polk's democratic mass meeting today, twelve delegates, J. A. Blance, James L. Gross, Editor Coleman and others, were elected to the gubernatorial convention, instructed for Northen, and all the old state house officers, except as to attorney general, they were instructed for Lester. General John B. Gordon was endorsed for senator. The meeting was a large and enthusiastic one, and entire harmony prevailed. A new executive committee was elected with J. W. Blance chairman.

The Primary in Dooly. CORDELE, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—The demo-cratic primary passed off quietly here today. Indi-cations are that the county will go for Nesbitt and Anderson. Colonel Thomas Hardeman re-ceived three votes in Cordele for governor. Hon. D. L. F. Peacock will carry the county for the legislature. Mr. Isaac Williams defeated Mr. Peacock in his home district by 15.

The Delegates From Harris. HAMILTON, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—The following are the delegates to the gubernatorial convention and state house officers from Harris county, as certified by T. J. Neal, chairman of the executive committee: J. F. C. Williams, W. C. Wisdom, R. B. Mobley, S. M. Brannon, T. H. Kimbrough, B. H. Williams, T. A. Little, S. R. Murpney, R. E. Richardson, A. A. Allen.

The Vote in Madison County. Danielsville, Ga., August 1.—[Special]—In the primary election for a representative for this county in the lower house of the general assembly, Mr. G. O. Griffith was nominated without opposition.

The Entire Ticket Wins.

ALPHARETTA, Ga., Augusti.—[Special.]—Nearly all the qualified voters of the county have polled their votes in the primary. The result is a complete triumph for the whole alliance ticket. The county is solid for Lester. Winn and Nesbitt have also carried the county by a good vote.

He Is Much Improved.—Hon. John Tyler Cooper has just returned from a trip to North Carolina, where he spent several weeks most enjoyably. He is very much improved in health and strength, and enjoyed himself immensely during his odding.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE. W. A. Sinquefield and B. C. Harris, farmers and alliancemen, were elected by good majorities for the legislature. liam Peter Smith, a farmer, but nonallianceman, received a good vote, but was defeated.

THE VOTE IN SANDERSVILLE The vote at Sandersville was: Watson 115; Barnes, 100. This was Barnes's stronghold. Seven precincts, including Sandersville and Tennille, give Watson 411 votes and Barnes 218 votes. Five to one in the county is an accurate estimate of Watson's majority. The Vote of Floyd. ROME, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—The demo-eratic convention, J. L. Bass, chairman, nominated for the legislature Felix Corput. J. What-ley and J. L. The Chatham County Delegation SAVANNAH, Ga., August 1 .- [Special.] - William Clifton, Major G. M. Ryals and Gozaway Hart-ridge were nominated tonight by the democratic party of Chatham for the legislature. The nomination was made by a mass meeting, at the Savannah theater, and the house was jammed. John Bernhardt was put in nomination, but was defeated. Northen and Nesbitt were endorsed, and all of the state house officers, except Gordon and Hendersson. Lester was unanimously en-dorsed for congress, and a resolution instructing Chatham's delegates to support some Bryan county man for the senate, was unanimously car ried. The meeting was very enthusiastic. Clifton was in the last house. Hartridge is editor of the Times, and was in the house of 1884-5. Ryals is a prominent farmer. The delegation is strong and

The Spalding Primary.

GRIFFIN, Ga., August 1.—[Special.]—The primary in Spalding today was very tame. The lack of opposition in the congressional race and the evenness of the friends of Messrs. Dismuke and ovenness of the friends of Messrs. Dismuke and Miller, candidates for representative, kept many from going to the precinets. Full returns cannot be had tonight, but enough is known to declare the following as being successful: Northen, for governor; Cook, for secretary of state; W. Wright, for comprtroller general; Henderson for commissioner of agriculture.

The vote between Colonel Livingston and Hon.
J. D. Stewart, for congress, is close, with chances in favor of Stewart.

Through Solid Allanta to Boston.—A creditable piece of railroad enterprise is the through solid special car—five Pullman cars and a piano coach, supplied with an Atlanta-made Cooper pianowhich leaves here at 1:25 p. m., August 8th, for the benefit of the Grandlarmy of theire public and the Northern Society of Georgia and their friends, going to Boston. It runs the entire distance without change, for the Grandlarmy of the Republic encampment at Boston. The railroad features of the excursion are under the direction of Mr. C. B. Walker, of the Western and Atlantic, and Mr. San Ray, of the Queen and Crescent, two of the most energetic and popular and thorough-going tiedet agents in this territory. Their names are a guarantee for quick, safe and comfortable traveling. The train is to be one of the finest that ever wen out from Atlanta.

The route is by Chattanooga, Cincinnati and Niagara Falls.

J. W. BYRAM, Observer. GRATUITOUS ADVICE.

This species of advice is not always acceptable, but in many instances much benefit would be derived were it acted upon. No section of the country is exempt from disease, To know the best means of combatting this common enemy, with the least injury to our pockets and tastes, is certainly a great advantage. We must expect Torpid Liver, Congested Spleen, Vitiated Blie and Inactive Bowels, and all prudent persons will supply themselves with Tutt's Pills, which stimulate the Liver, relieve the engorged Spleen, determine a healthy flow of Bile, thus regulating the bowels and causing all unhealthy secretions to pass off in a natural manner. "An ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure." Be advised and use

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get

THE LEAGUE REORGANIZED LAST NIGHT. A Rousing Meeting and a Hotly

Contested Election. MR. HARVEY JOHNSON IS PRESIDENT.

The Excitement That Prevailed-The League Awakened.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, last night, the meeting of the Young Men's Democratic League was called to order in the basement of the county courthouse.

The hall was crowded with hundreds of Atlanta's young democrats, and from the very beginning the meeting was fired with warmest President William P. Hill was in the chair, and after calling the meeting to order, stated the objects for which the members of the league had been assembled. He began by saying that his term of office had expired, and he felt called upon to yield the honor which had been entrusted to him, back to the league, and ask the election of his He stated further that the terms of the other officers had expired, and it was time for an election to be held to reorganize the league and rekindle the interest among its members for the great objects designed in its organiza-

"I want to say in the outset," continued Mr. Hill, "that the time has come for the members of our league to awake to the realization of the great crisis that confronts the demoeratic party today. We have before us a work far more demanding than that which confronted men who fought in the forum and with the sword.

"That democracy which our fathers have built up at the cost of heroic deeds and nurtured with the stern test of sacrificing their nurtured with the stern test of sacrificing their life-blood for it, calls forth our heartiest support today. It needs our united efforts mere than at any time since the trying days just after the war. A crisis has come and we must meet it in a way that becomes southern gentlemen and true democrats. [Applause.]

"We have a great mission to perform. The democracy must be wrenched from the clutches of the baset tyrants that ever ruled the affairs of the basest tyrants that ever ruled the affairs at the national capital, and must be guarded against another foe nearer home—a foe with no directed aim, 'tis true, but one no less dangerous to our party, the Farmers' Alliance. With the iniquitous force bill, and the dangerous folly of the subtreasury plan, the democratic party is shadowed today by two appalling clouds. One is no worse than the other; both are too frightful to contemplate; for as they rise above the horizon the mutterings of their hidden tempests reverberate over this southern land with a terrific warning. of the basest tyrants that ever ruled the affairs

The motion-was seconded, and Mr. Harvey

The motion-was seconded, and Mr. Harvey Johnson arose and said he, as one of the candidates, would prefer this course, for he would not accept the office unless endorsed by a full majority of the democrats present.

Mr. Tom Bishop quickly said he rested his claims on such a course, and Mr. Jack Stewart fellowed with a similar statement.

The motion was carried by a unanimous rote.

Mr. Harvey Johnson: "I move that each Andidate be allowed seven minutes before the election to refute such charges as may have been brought against him in this campaign." [Cries of "No time for speeches."]

Mr. Johnson said: "I have heard several charges against me which I ask to correct before this meeting here and now."

Mr. Jack Spalding moved that each candidate be given seven and one-half minutes. Carried.

THE CANDIDATES SPEAK.
Mr. Johnson: "I have heard charges that I am a candidate of a ring. It is false. I am backed by no combination, and have had no consultation with any ring to secure this office." He denied that he was a "Bell house candidate" most amphatically. fice." He denied that he was a "Bell house candidate" most emphatically.

Mr. Jack Stewart: "There is no issue in this race that I know of. It seems that the friends of each candidate wanted to make him president, and that was all."

He said he had no charges to make nor to answer.

Mr. Tom Bishop said only a word or two about the race. He saw no occasion for a speech, and made none. He had only to say he was running on his record as a democrat.

NOMINATIONS FOR PRESIDENT.

When the nominations for president were declared in order, Mr. Eugene Mitchell arose and in a graceful speech nominated Mr. Jack B. Stewart. The name was greeted with loud

B. Stewart. The name was greeted with loud applause.

Mr. Arnold Broyles seconded the nomination.

Mr. Hubert Culberson nominated, in a brief speech, Mr. Tom Bishop, and the nomination was seconded by several voices at once.

Mr. Morris Brandon nominated Mr. Harvey Johnson with a fitting speech, and Mr. W. C. Glenn seconded the nomination.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed as judges at the polls, to be assisted by two friends of each candidate.

Mr. Hamilton Douglass moved that "everybody present, qualined to vote in a democratic primary, be allowed to vote in the election."

"I move," said Dr. Harry Huzza, "that we roceed at once with the election."

This sentiment was vociferously applauded.
"I move," said Mr. John Berry, "that only hose be allowed to vote who can show their as received."

"Get down! You're off!"

"—only those—"
"Sit down! Sit down!"
As soon as he could be recognized by the chair, Mr. Thad Hammond moved that when there is any question raised as to whether a man is a democrat or not, that his simple statement decide the matter.

This was applauded, and without a formal metion was adopted as the rule.

Mr. Bill Mickelberry wanted to say something, but the crowd was anxious for a vote, and he couldn't say it.

and he couldn't say it.

President Hill quit listening to motions and hurried the arrangements for a vote.

One manager and two clerks were named for each candidate—Mr. C. S. Northon, Mr. J. J. Falvey and Mr. T. F. Flynn for Mr. Johnson; Mr. W. B. Brown, Mr. G. T. Osborn and Mr.

J. S. Candler for Mr. Bishop; and Mr. J. M. Green, Mr. Arnold Broyles and Mr. C. Z. Blalock for Mr. Stewart,

Then the voting began.

The crush was fearful—a pretty sure guarantee against repeating—but the crowd took it in great good humor.

"He ain't a democrat! Look at that baby trying to vote! He's voted twice already! Here comes third party!"

And so on, for perhaps twenty minutes, when Mr. Walter Brown's thumb went down on the voting place and the pols were closed.

The managers and clerks retired to count the ballots.

ballots.

Upon motion of Mr. Jack Spalding a committee of five was appointed to nominate two vice presidents, a secretary and a treasurer.

The committee was—Mr. J. J. Spalding, Mr. J. K. Ohl, Mr. Frank Arnold, Mr. Clifford Hartridge and Mr. James A. Gray.

When this committee retired for deliberation, the house was left without any business to attend to.

"Speech!" suggested Amos Baker from the rear.

"Glenn! Glenn!" was the echo.
Hon. W. C. Glenn responded in an eloquent short talk.

He was followed by Mr. E. M. Mitchell, Mr. John Berry and Mr. Dan W. Rountree.

Mr. Rountree concluded his remarks with a motion to endorse Mr. W. H. Venable as the choice of the league for senator from the thirty-fifth district.

This was unexpected. The only objection, however, was on the ground that the resolution was clearly outside the purpose for which the meeting was called.

The chairman ruled that the motion was in order, and it was passed.

The committee of five, appointed to nominate the officers, other than the president, reported through Mr. J. J. Spalding, their chairman.

"We nominate for the two vice presidents," said he, "the two candidates who will be unsuccessful in the race for president. For secretary, Mr. Clarence Moore. For treasurer, Mr. John W. Cox."

The report was unanimously adopted.

The report was unanimously adopted.
The vote came in just at this point:
Johnson, 184.
Stewart, 136.
Bishop, 92.

This was received with cheers by the John-

Then Mr. Bishop, in a neat little speech thanking his supporters, withdrew his name. As neither candidate had received a major-ity of all the votes cast, another ballot was

Mr. Stewart moved that the election of Mr. Johnson be made unanimous.

This was carried.

Mr. Johnson was called on for a speech and responded very happily. He referred very feelingly to Colonel Buck, and Mr. Walter Brown enjoyed this part conspicuously.

"Hit him again," he advised.

"Hit old Buck!" was the response from the crowd. "Hit him again!"

Then Mr. Stewart made a very handsome little talk, and was followed by Mr. Tom Bishop.

Bishop.

The meeting then adjourned.

If Mr. Jim Gray had been recognized, instead of Mr. Burton Smith, the following resolution would have been brought before the

The other; both are too frightful to contemplate; for as they rise above the horizon the mutterings of their hidden tempests reverberate over this southern land with a terrific warning.

"The situation is just this: The democratic party must swallow the alliance, or the alliance will swallow it. One thing is certain, if the democratic party swallows the alliance, it will have the worst case of cholera morbus that ever shocked its system. [Laughter.]

"Now, fellow democrats, can you perpetuate a power that is confined to one class, and which consists in secret vows and solemn coaths? Is this a time for class to be secretly arrayed against class?

"No. Let ut stand by one another as democrats. Let us fally around the democracy of our fathers with a unity of ambition and a unity of aim, ready and willing to guard it against any and all foes. Let us put such men in power as will advance the cause of that democracy, and see that its fair escutcheon is undimmed, untarnished and unstained." [Prolonged cheering.]

Mr. Hill's speech was well received, and his earthestness for the best interests of the league called forth repeated outbursts of appreciative applause.

PREPARING FOR ELECTIONS.

As soon as President Hill sat down, and announced that the election of officers was in order. Mr. Hugh Culberson moved that none but democrats under forty years to age be allowed to vote. Passed.

Mr. James A. Gray: "I move that the candidate who receives the majority of all the votes be declared elected."

The motion-was seconded, and Mr. Harvey Johnson arose and said he, as one of the canal continuous and such the resolutions were not formally introduced.

ATLANTA, GA., AUGUST 2, 1890.

Blaine and the Tariff,

Apart from the contest over the force bill, there is a very lively state of affairs in Washington. The political storm-center is now gyrating about Mr. Blaine and the republican enemies he has made by his recent letters to Mr. Frye, and his unconcealed opposition to other republican measures which Reed and Quay, and their tools deem necessary to republican success.

The republican sectionalists are alarmed, and this alarm gives bitterness to their criticisms of the brace and mainstay of the Harrison administration. The conspirators say a good many things about Mr. Blaine that never appear in the newspapers. It is true that a pictorial weekly, for which Mr. Harrison's son is a sort of Mexican traveling agent, has recently printed a highly colored cartoon entitled "Jealous Jim," but some of the president's dearest friends are using stronger language than that about the secretary of state. He is charged with an ambition reckless enough to destroy the party, and he is freely alluded to as the republican

It is evident from all this that Mr. Blaine's opposition to the force bill and to the Mc-Kinley bill has seriously hurt the feelings of the special followers of Messrs, Reed and McKinley, and they make no effort to smother their feelings. As THE CONSTITU-TION has already pointed out, Mr. Blaine's attack on the McKinley bill is a much more important matter to the conspirators than appeared on the face of it. The keystone of the entire tariff arch is free sugar. It was so regarded in the debate in the house, and the statement has been frequently made in the leading organs. As a rebate on the unjust and unnecessary taxation imposed by the McKinley tariff, the people were to have untaxed sugar. It was a very fine scheme indeed, but Mr. Blaine has shown what a picturesque farce it is. He has gone even further than this, showing that, from beginping to end, the McKinley bill opens not a single new market to the products of the American farmer.

Naturally, the partisans who have concocted the McKinley bill and the force bill for campaign purposes are indignant at the attitude of Mr. Blaine, and it is not at all surprising that they apply to him such epithets as "Jealous Jim," "Jim the Penman," and "Jonah." Even The New York Tribune, which has for years been an ardent Blaine organ, is nerved to ask the secretary of state "how far his criticism of the tariff bill reaches." and to this inquiry it tacks on a warning that "republican success in the autumn must not be imperiled by divided

Furthermore, it is believed by the republican partisans in Washington that Mr. Blaine has done the republican party an irreparable injury by his attack on the Mc-Kinley bill, and it is hinted that Reed and the men of his kidney are preparing to force the secretary of state out of the cabinet. The probability is, however, that Mr. Blaine will cut himself loose from the administrae an oppoi tunity to crowd him out. He is too shrewd a politician not to have discovered that there is neither honor nor dignity in serving in the cabinet of so small a man as Harrison, and there can be little doubt that he will place himself in a position where he can once more be the leader instead of the servant.

He already has at his back some of the strongest elements of the republican party, and he has never lost his hold on the republican masses. Should it come to a trial of strength between Reed, McKinley & Co., and Mr. Blaine, the conspirators would promptly go to the wall. This is the situation, and we are confident that the contest that has already been inaugurated will result in important developments. At any rate, it is a contest which the democrats can afford to watch with patient interest.

The Force Bill in the Senate.

The Philadelphia Press, a rabid republican organ, and a frenzied supporter of the federal force and fraud bill, makes these interesting remarks: "If the present cheerful condition of affairs continues in the southern states, the democrats in the senate may yet turn in and support the federal elections

In this our contemporary is probably mistaken. It has no doubt been misled by some of its democratic exchanges in the south, which are not now, and never have been, in touch with current public sentiment. There are a number of journals in the south which, prompted by a queer perversion of all the elements of competition and rivalry, may be counted on, in any emergency, to oppose whatever is advocated by THE CONSTITUTION. They do not wait consider the matter, or to inquire whether the people are interested in the subject. All they desire to know is, does THE CONSTI-TUTION favor or oppose? That is their only test. It is nothing to them that THE Constitution is invariably endorsed by the people; that whatever enterprise it undertakes it invariably carries through to success. There is no object lesson powerful enough to reform editors who believe that competition means opposition. A good many other northern newspapers have been misled by some of their southern exchanges. Fortunately for both sections, the public sentiment of the country, taking its cue from THE CONSTITUTION, has made such an impression on the republicans of the senate that the bill, if it passes at all, will be desectionalized and emasculated. Even Senator Hoar says the prospect of the passage of the house bill is not encouraging, and the Washington correspondent of The New York Herald declares that it is entirely safe to say that at least twenty republicans, many of whom rank among the leaders of the senate, are so unalterably opposed to the Lodge bill that they would not support it under any circumstances.

As a matter of fact, The Herald corre spondent announces that the bill is already dead. He says that it can only be passed in any shape by a change of the rules, which can only be secured by the concurrence of forty-three republican senators, constituting a majority of the senate. Six senators-among them Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont-are known to be opposed to the bill. Mr. Edmunds is a very violent partisan, but his attitude on the proposition to change the rules is set at rest by the correspondent of The Philadelphia Press, who says: "It is evident that the bill will not get out of the senate in another six weeks if the rules are not changed. But Senator Edmunds continues to assert his earnest opposition to any change of the rules. The traditions of the senate seem more important to the Vermont senator than the business interests of the country or the welfare of his country." This is the outlook now.

Democrats Saved the Union. The current number of Belford's Magazine contains a remarkable article, by Thomas Edgar Wilson, in which it is claimed that democrats fought the battles for the union and saved it.

Mr. Wilson shows that the vote of the twenty-two loval states in 1860 gave a democratic majority of 100,858. These states furnished 2,600,746 soldiers. If the soldiers were republicans, their absence from home would have increased the democratic major ity. But the statistics show that the republican majorities steadily increased, running into hundreds of thousands as the war progressed. Mr. Wilson accounts for this by saving that the democrats were fighting at the front while the republicans staid at home, got rich and did the voting. As a proof of this assumption the fact should be noted that the democratic vote of the loval states jumped from 1,789,038 in 1864 to 2,214,361 in 1868, after the soldiers had returned home.

The case seems to be made out. Nearly all the best federal generals were democrats -Grant, McClellan, Hancock, Buell, and many others. The editor of the magazine says in his comments on the article: A republican president "fought the war" for the union with democratic armies commanded by democratic generals. The republican party had no more to do with fighting the civil war than it had with fighting King Phillip's war. The repub lican of 1860 wanted "our wayward sisters to part in peace." He hated the flag as "a flau part in peace." He hated the flag as "a flaunting lie," a "political rag." To him "the constitution was a covenant with death and a league with hell." He stayed at home to vote, to make me by army contracts, to embarrass and haaass a fire in the rear the democratic union generals in the field, and to denounce the 300,000 democrat who sleep in the national cemeteries, as "traitor

This queer bit of history doubtless carries a lesson with it. One thing sticks out very plainly, and that is that when the republicans kick up a row it is their policy to remain in the rear and get somebody else to do their fighting.

Bad For the Peace Congress

For several days past a crowd of amiable old gentlemen calling themselves the International Peace Congress have been in session in London.

These mild reformers believe that the world is about to enter upon an era of universal peace, and in anticipation of the time when swords shall be turned into plowshares they have passed a bushel of resolutions breathing the spirit of brotherly love and all that sort of thing.

It is to be feared that the members of the peace congress do not read the newspapers of the day. If they kept up with the current events they would stand aghast at the outlook. Buenos Ayres is a big slaughter pen, the Central American republics are cutting each other's throats, England wants to lick the United States, France, Germany and Russia are getting ready to fight, and there are several smaller rows in prospect.

This is no timen talk about an era of universal peace, and the apostles of flubdub who would have us believe that the world is growing better should be treated for general paresis.

The soldier still remains what Carlyle called him, the most positive figure of our civilization. Even in our free republic he stands behind the civil law, and we have recently seen a partisan administration threatening to draw the sword in order to perpetuate its power.

It is a waste of words to talk about peace when there is no peace.

GENERAL GARFIELD, who opposed the force bill of 1875, was made president. This is the tip the Boston Herald gives to Senator Ed-

JOHN IRVINTON didn't see a hog while he stayed in Edinburgh. Do the Américan aristocracy fight shy of that town?

WHEN MR. BLAINE gets out of the cabinet there will be nothing left of the administration but an antiquated hat, a shoddy bargain cour ter and a female real estate speculator.

"THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION and Genera Gordon," says the Galveston News, "should spend a session robbing hornets' nests." Fortunately for the south and the whole country, THE CONSTITUTION and General Gordop have been successfully engaged in whipping the hornets and extracting their stings.

ATLANTA'S MIDSUMMER festival will be the greatest show the south has ever seen. The pageant will be witnessed by thousands of people from all parts of the south.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

PRESIDENT HARRISON in a recent message recommended the exclusion from the mails of newspapers advertising Mexican lotteries. The old man and his son should hold a conference

SENATOR HISCOCK calls the democrats of New York "a combination of rumsellers, divekeeper and animals."

The Funny Charleston News and Courier says:

"We simply propose' says The Atlanta Constitution, in further explanation of its boycott scheme, we simply propose, when the necessity arises, to hoe our own row and tote our own skillet.' This is wiser and more practicable than trying to smash the whole protected home market for Yankee manufacturers; but we fear that our contemporary has still a bigger programme than it can live up to. Skillets can be made in Georgis, but where is the hoe to come from?" Then our contemporary rather inconsistently remarks in another paragraph: "The south would be the gainer in every respect if it had no connection with the north, and that the north understands this perfectly was demonstrated a few years ago by its forcible protest against a separation."

A Cautious Tribute.

It is still a question as to whether the federal election bill will be passed or not, but if it does it will be shorn of its more objectionable features and will be equally applicable to north and south The broad discussion of the bill and the proposed boycotting of the north in the event of its passage has resulted in this much good at heart. The bayonet and other partisan clauses have been stricken out, and, in fact, the passage of any part of the bill has doubtless been killed.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, by the very aggressive position taken of the boycott, has contributed much to the agitation of the subject, and for this much of good the extreme lines of that able paper's arguments may be overlooked. No one can doubt but that in the event of the passage of the bill, as originally introduced, would have called for prompt action on the part of the south, but, at the same time, that action would have necessarily been of a more conservative fort than was proposed by THE CONSTITUTION. Yet, for the good which has resulted from the general com ments of the entire press, called forth, as they were, by the first outburst of thunder from THE CONSTITUTION'S gun, we are ready to overlook the harsher sentiments of that esteemed journal, knowing that the first great storm is over and that the signs of the times are full of peace.

GEORGIA POLITICS.

The Madisonian: "The Madisonian, true t the cause of democracy, places the name of John W. Burney at its mast-head as the choice of the democratic party of Morgan for representation in the next legislature. Mr. Burney was fairly and mingly nominated by th gan in last Wednesday's primary, and it is the duty of every democrat in Morgan to support him.

REBUKING A FALSE FRIEND.

The Manly Action of Judge MacRae, of North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 1.—[Special.]—The sole topic of talk here today was the anonymous circular attacking Associate Justice Clarke, of the supreme court. Efforts have been made to discover its author. It is thought to have been printed at Goldaboro, and has been widely circulated in the state. It was mailed in envelopes court nomination, heard of the circular today, and is greatly incensed at it. He utterly condemns the publication of it. Early this afternoon a rumor became current that MacRae would withdraw as a candidate for the nomination. He was defeated for judge in his own district, but received the warmest endorsement for the nomination for associate justice, and was a strong man.

Tonight it was learned that he will tomorrow withdraw from the race, thus leaving the field to by McDaniel Street Bridge.

Will Metcalf, a negro car cleaner, met a horrible death vesterday afternoon.

He was knocked from the top of a freight train by the McDaniel street bridge, and was literally ground to pieces beneath the wheels of the freight cars.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4:30 o'clock, Metcalf boarded an incoming freight on the East Tennessee road, which had just reached Atlanta from the north, and started to ride on it to the yards.

He was standing on top of a box car, when he was struck on the head by the McDaniel street bridge, which is not high enough above the tracks to allow a man standing erect on a car to pass under.

street bridge, which is not high enough above the tracks to allow a man standing erect on a car to pass under.

The blow knocked the man down on top of the car, where he pitched about in agony for several minutes before rolling down between the two cars to the tracks. Another negro on the next car, who saw the accident, could easily have saved Metcalf from his horrible death by catching him before he rolled from the top of the car had he had the presence of mind to exert himself.

Metcalf was dragged by the wheels about a hundred yards, and was horribly mangled when the train passed on.

The remains were gathered up and carried to the East Tennessee freight depot, near the scene of the accident. An inquest will be held today.

Metcalf worked with his father as a car cleaner in the East Tennessee yards. He was about nineteen years of age, and lived in White's alley with his parents.

THE STATE FAIR.

THE EDUCATIONAL FEATURE AD-VANCING.

Letters from Distinguished Educators Who Will Contribute Their Part Toward

Making the State Fair a Sp MACON, Ga., August 1.-[Special.]-Colonel Northen is working with might and main for the next state fair. He has been particularly zealous in werking up the educational feature of the fair, and is eeting with most flattering success. Below are some letters he has received in regard to it from a number of the most promi nent educators in the state: MACON, Ga., July 25, 1890.—Hon. W. J. Northen President Georgia State Agricultural Society— Dear Sir: The scheme of lectures and educational exhibits represed by you in connection Dear Sir: The scheme of lectures and educational exhibits proposed by you in connection with the approaching state fair, I regard as an admirable feature. This first effort will, no doubt, be attended with many difficulties and hindered by many embarrassments, but timetand experience will settle the programme and everything will find its proper place and its benefits will be largely felt.

Its novelty will add to the entertainment, and surely the monotony of the farmer's life deserved to be broken up by such relaxation. It will provoke healthful thought and lead to earnest efforts to improve our educational facilities. Its display will excite an emulation that is landable and will result in the use of better methods in the practice and in the discovery of safer principles in the theory of teaching. The discussion of such themes will awaken a deeper interest in educational matters. This is an agricultural country yet, and the farm is not only the truck patch for beets and corn and cotton, but it is also the plant-bed for thought, manhood and citizenship.

Solve the educational problem by working it out on the life-slate, and you have the data for the solution of every other problem, social, inancial and political. A proper education will produce a society in which every element, as if by gravitation, will take its proper place. In business it will harmonize all interests, and labor and capital will be joined in happy wedlock. In politics the greatest good to the greatest number (will be accomplished. By all means have the educational annex, and put the people to thinking. I will help you all I can. Yours very truly, [G. A. NURNALLY. COLUMBUS, Ga., July 22, 1890.—Hon. W. J. Northen, Sparta, Ga.—Dear Sir: Owing to my absence from Columbus, your letter of the 3d instant did not come to hand until today. I write at once to say that I heartily favor your idea of having a Chautauqua and educational exhibitin connection with the state fair. I think the plan which you suggest is, in most of its features at least, entirely practicable. It seems to methat such an illustration of the educationa advantages of Georgia cannot fall to be one of the most interesting and instructive features of the state fair. I will gladly do anything in my power to help the cause. I think you may count on an exhibit of school work from our college. Very truly yours,

GAINESVILLE, Ga., July 8.—Hon.W. J. Northern, Sparta, Ga., My Dear Brother: Allow me to say that you will never do Georgia a greater service than to successfully carry out the educational feature in the approaching state fair, as outlined in your letter of today. It is the best idea the hear than to successfully carry out the educational feature in the approaching state fair, as outlined in your letter of today. It is the best idea that has been conceived in Georgia for years, and will arouse an educational interest, enthusiasm and generous rivalry hitherto unheard of. I am heart and soul in sympathy with you, and if I, or my institution, can be of service, that service will be most willingly rendered. There is only one thing I fear. As you know, our school is in its infancy. Four years ago we had absolutely nothing. While every department is now complete and equal to the best to be found, we have not had time to collect a large amount of work in our art department. In music, elecution or class work, I will put my girls against the state. I am in for the fight. You have struck fickey note in getting Georgia talent for the lectures, and the school part is the best of it all. Fraterially yours,

I am in favor of a free ballot and a fair count of all votes honestly cast, and if legislation is necessary to secure that result, I am in favor of that. I believe the people are honestly enough and fair enough in the ninth district to demand and secure fair elections."

"How is the political situation in the ninth?"

"The republicans have the pull on the democratic candidates. Figures don't lie, and there are 8,000 republican voters in the district out of about twenty thousand. The democratic vote will be split between the independent and organized democrat and—need I say more?"

CHAUTAUQUA REPORTS PROGRESS. The Dean's English Bible Schools Growing

The Dean's English Bible Schools Growing in Interest.

LITHIA SPRINGS, Ga., August 1.—(Special.)—The Dean's English Bible school continues to grow in interest. It is most strange that day after day an audience not classically educated, and not professionally interested in the subject can be drawn together and held against the heat of a midsummer day, by the discussion of the meaning of New Testament Greek words, and yet, the fact is, that at Chautauqua Dean Wright succeeds in doing that very thing. The topic of yesterday'd discussion was "Logic," and the point was malatained by the lecturer that we should not jump to conclusions, but prove all things, waiting the slower, but safer process of logic for our postitions on all great theological quesions. The position of the lecturer awakened a great deal of interest and some discussion. One thing is certain. Dean Wright's methods sets people thinking, and after all, that is the mark of the highest success in the work of any public teacher.—The afternoon lecture was by Colonel J. E. Shumate, of Dalton. Ga. His subject. "Educational Misfits," was ably discussed. The colonel is well known in morth Georgia as an able advocate. Here, in the presence of a Chautauqualaudence, he seemed as much at home as before judge and jury, indeed, such was his interest in his subject that once he addressed Dr. Gillet, who was president, as "your honor." The position of the lecturer was that while men and women are often misplaced in the work of life through wrong theories of parents or taskes ambition, a liberal education was likely to result in enabling people to find places of usefulness and do the work of life better than it would otherwise be done. His eloquent references to Mr. Grady, Senator Hill, General Lee and Mr. Davis were vigorously applanded. Mr. Shumate held the attention of his audience for more than an hour and in his style and manner, revealed the true oratorical spirit. He will be cordially welcomed when he comes again.

The Ministers' Institute grows in interest, an ministers were as scarce as the provided the teeth.

The interest of the laity, however, makes up for the absence of ministers. Thus a good deal of talking back, but the leader is always the leader, and is never without a satisfactory answer.

NIMBLE ATHLETES.

A BIG CROWD AT PONCE DE LEON YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

To Witness the First Public Exhibition of Outdoor Sports by the Young Athletes of the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium.

Yesterday was a great day for the gympasium department of the Young Men's Christian Association. The first exhibition of aquatic and field sports was a notable success, and marks a period in athletics in Atlanta.

Two thousand people gathered about the prettily laid-off grounds and along the banks of the lake to witness the sports, and the adjacent groves and drives were thickly crowded with carriages.

A large proportion of the spectators was composed of ladies and children, who gave vent to their appreciation of the different events by lusty cheers and vigorous waving of handkerchiefs and fans.

All the events were much enjoyed by everybody, the races being exciting and the funny features on the programme decidedly amusing. Professor Whitman and his department of the Young Men's Christian Association should feel very highly gratified at the splendid re-ception they were given. The first field day of the association was held under such flattersuccess of others which are to follow. The entertainment proved satisfactorily that Atlanta appreciates first-class athletic sports, especially when they are given under the direction of the Young Men's Christian Asso-

ing auspices as is sure to result in the grand

The entertainment was given without the attendance of a single disagreeable feature, the young gentlemen who participated being all members of the association and conducting their sports in a gentlemanlike manner.

At 5 o'clock Professor Whitman, who acted as master of ceremonies, announced the open-ing of the exhibition by an obstacle race. This was a happy feature with which to start out such an entertainment. It was highly amusing, as well as showing off the ability of the young athletes to fine advantage, and caught the crowd at once.

Five young men-Messrs. Drake, Harry Carmichael, Eugene Carmichael, Ward and Burns-were the starters of this novel event. Around the newly made eighth-mile track had been placed a half-dozen hurdles to begin on, then came two barrels with both ends knocked out, half way imbedded in the ground, and lastly three similar barrels sus-pended by ropes tied around them and fastened o a beam that had been erected across the

The runners cleared all the hurdles, pretty well bunched, but Drake and Harry Carmichael reached the two barrels imbedded in the ground first. Drake was much the smaller and more active, and consequently got through his barrel first. He was loudly cheered as he took his feet again, followed a second later by Carmichael, whose terrific efforts to squeeze his body through such a small opening created a good deal of amusement.

When the three suspended barrels were reached then the fun began in earnest. The contestants sprang easily head-first into the dangling traps, but their exit was not such an easy matter. After a great deal of wriggling, gopher fashion, the three barrels finally umped their loads on the ground in a bunch. Drake was up and off first, crossing the scratch winner, followed closely by Carmichael and

The race was loudly cheered all the way through.

The second event was a jumping contest, taken part in by Messrs. Charlie Martin, Ward, Harry Carmichael and Drake.

Martin won easily in the run and jump, covering the string at five feet three inches. A great deal of interest was taken in the jumping, and the graceful, easy manner in which Martin vaulted the string was frequently cheered.

In the leaping with poles, Drake won, passing over the cord at the height of eight feet.

This was probably the most exciting of the contests, Drake and Martin being very nearly matched. matched.

In the hop, skip and jump, in which the contestants were Ward, Harrison, Martin and Burns, Martin won, making thirty-seven feet two inches.

The field sports concluded with a hundred yard dash by Martin, Drake, Ward, Harrison and Rose. In the first dash Martin led all the way, but made a false stop at a point where he thought the scratch was located, allowing Drake to come in, before he had time to recover his lost ground.

The dash was run over again, Drake winning by a few inches. The race was an interesting one, all the runners being quite evenly

After this race the crowd left the field and went over to the lake, where the aquatic sports were to be given.

A tub race, in which the champions were Brenning, Rose, Leseman, Mitchell, Willingham and Smith, was the first on the programme.

Everybody knows what a tub race is—a conglomeration of nonsense that never fails to create fun. Under Professor Whitman, several novel features were introduced, which made the event more than ordinarily amusing.

made the event more than ordinarily amusing. If anybody won the race, nobody has found it out yet. When the crowd broke up, the sportive tub racers were still struggling with might and main to round the outposts.

The exhibition concluded with a beat race, in which the contestants were A. T. Ward, Harry Carmichael, Eugene Carmichael, Prake, Agricola and Carbine. Ward was victorious, with Carbine pulling close up beside him.

The crowd remained until the close of the entertainment, all so well pleased that the asentertainment, all so well pleased that the as-sociation next field day can well count on even a bigger attendance.

THE DAY WHEN THE COMMITTEES USUALLY MEET.

The Electric Railway Ordinance Discussed and Disposed Of-The Telephone Wires to Go Uuder Ground.

The committee on electrical construction and the ordinance committee of the general council held a joint session in the city clerk's office yesterday. The city attorney was to have been there. But was not.

Mr. Woodward and Mr. King of the com mittee on electrical construction, and Mr. Hutchison, Hulsey and Hendrix of the ordinance committee were present.

So were Captain W. D. Ellis, attorney for the Atlanta and Edgewood Street Car Lines Mr. Joel Hurt, its president, and Colonel B. F. Abbott, representing the Atlanta, West End and McPherson Barrack's Line.

Mr. Woodward was placed in the chair, and an invitation was given the gentlemen present to talk if they wanted to talk.

Captain Ellis repeated his speech heard by the members of the general council at the last meeting. His argument against the clause requiring the roads to forfeit $5,000 a mile for each mile of a line or system petitioned for and unbuilt was just as careful and forcible as it was before the council.

"But, Captain Ellis" asked Mr. Woodward from the chair, "suppose a company puts in a petition for a line three miles long and then builds only two miles because the other mile won't pay, what will you do then?"

"Take the charter away from them," an swered Captain Ellis. Colone! Abbott was given the floor and in less than five minutes related, and then re-peated the history of street cars in Atlanta from the day the first wheel made a revolu-

"When a company asks for a right," said he, "make them begin and complete work within a given time, or give up their charter. My company has no charter yet, but the charter will be granted them by next Tuesday."

"What company do you represent, Colonel Abbott?" asked Mr. King, smiling. "The Atlanta and West End line to Mc Pherson park," he answered.

"How much of that line will be in Atlanta n the city I mean?" asked Mr. Woodward. "From THE CONSTITUTION building to the city limits, about two miles I guess," was the answer.

"Don't you know, Colonel Abbott," asked Mr. Woodward, "that nearly every city in the union sell streets car franchises instead of givng them away?"

"Only a few. Boston is the only one," said Colonel Abbott, "of which I know. But that's digressing. The state laws and the city charter are against that section of the ordinance, and I have no idea it can be enforced." Mr. Joel Hurt then addressed the joint ssion, and, in his remarks, asserted that he had built the finest street railway line in the "If I have not," said he, "please show me a

"But, Mr. Hurt," asked Mr. Woodward, "are not four companies after Luckie street? Isn't it true that your company asks for nearly or about five miles of streets, and intends to build only on Luckie street —?"

"We are —"
"Wait, please. Luckie street is the only route to that part of town," continued Mr.
Woodward, turning his attention to the committees, "and if a company builds to the end of the line and does not occupy the other lines, lateral ones you may say, there will be no other way to reach those portions of the city. We want to grant their franchises to the companies which will penetrate and develop the most territory." franchises to the companies which will pene-trate and develop the most territory."

"If that suggestion be true," said Mr. Hurt,
"I am against the ordinance more than ever.
If it is aimed especially at us, we will not seek a compromise. But that is undeserved. We will build every mile we ask for. There is nothing but good faith in us. However, it looks to me like this ordinance is aimed at us.

If Luckie street is the bone of contention, we are willing to give up Luckie street, provided we are allowed to reach our collateral lines by other route." other routes."

Mr. Hulsey declared himself against the ordinance, as it was written in such a way that it would apply to all companies, new and old.

"I think," said Mr. King, "that the ordinance should contain a forfeit feature; but whether that forfeiture should be one of other routes. whether that forfeiture should be one of money or franchise I am not fully satisfied.

Since the forfeit of the franchise for a want of full compliance has been outlined—I don't know—but—what—that—will do."

Mr. Hulsey moved to make an adverse report upon the ordinance as written.

There a discussion among the members folport upon the ordinance as written.

Then a discussion among the members followed. Finally it was agreed to have the city attorney draft an ordinance with Mr. Woodward and Mr. Hulsey in accordance with Mr. Woodward's ordinance, substituting a forfeiture clause for the clause requiring a bond of $5,000 for each mile. The Wires Underground.

The electrical committee convened in the city hall yesterday, and Alderman Hutchison's ordinance requiring all telephone wires to be placed underground by or before 1893 was read.

be placed underground by or before 1883 was read.

Mr. Woodward opposed the ordinance in its third section in which it was declared that all telephone companies working in Atlanta after January, 1893, should put their wires underground.

Mr. Hutchison favored the ordinance.

Mr. King wanted to amend by requiring the company to place all wires underground by 1892.

The ordinance, as presented by Mr. Hutchi-on, was adopted.

The New House Numbers. The New House Numbers.

Since Mayor Glenn vetoed the ordinance requiring a renumbering of houses, nothing has been done with the matter.

At the last meeting of the general council the matter was not reached, and the veto will stand.

"It hink," said Mayor Glenn in discussing the matter, "that the houses should be renumbered. In fact, there is no doubt about it, the only difficulty being the plan. The scheme presented by Mr. Saunders is a good one, but Atlanta has never reached a size where the division lines should be established. Whitehall and Peachtree mark a north and south line no more than the railroads mark an east and west. I think these lines should be marked."

POSTOFFICE MATTERS.

THE NIGHT SERVICE TAKES EFFECT MOST SUCCESSFULLY.

A Great Improvement in the Office-The Special Civil Service Examination Yesterday-Another Next Friday.

Atlanta's postal service is good. The night schedule, which was begun last night, is the latest improvement to the service that Postmaster Lewis has made, and he will be congratulated by every citizen for it.

This feature of the postoffice is a great thing for Atlanta, and the present officials deserve much praise for its perfectness in every The schedule of the night service, as published in The Constitution, went into effect yesterday, and the general delivery window was open from 7 o'clock in the morning till 11 o'clock at night. The change worked well the first night, but when the further improvements contemplated by Superintendent E. H. Blodgett are complete, the postoffice will be as perfect in every department as could be desired.

The numerous calls at the general delivery vindow last night showed without mistake the great need for a night service in Atlanta, and this demand will, of course, be further realized when it is better known that the office is kept open at night.

Mail that reaches Atlanta by the Richmond and Danville railroad at 9:40 o'clock at night is now delivered at 11 o'clock the same night. Stamps can be bought from the delivery window at night, registered mail is shifted more rapidly than ever before, and in many other ways the night postal service offers desirable advantages.

THE CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION The first special civil service examination held in this part of the south this year, for departmental and railway mail service, took place yesterday.

More than fifty applicants entered the Twenty of these entered for clerkships, twenty-two for copyists, and sixteen for the railway mail service.

The papers will be sent to Washington today to be rated, and Mr. Wallace Rhodes, of the postoffice board, thinks a good number will be qualified, as the applicants were a very intelligent body of men.

Another civil service examination will be held next Friday for securing a list of gnalified. held next Friday for securing a list of qualified carriers and clerks for the Atlanta office,

LIBRRARY NOTES.

Four hundred and fifty-five more books were ssued in the past month than in July of 1889. The Congressional Record is consulted almost as much as the popular illustrated periodicals. A beautiful edition of "The Cathedrals of the World" has been recently added to the library. Also the missing volumes of Harper's Magazine, making now a complete and valuable set. A list of new books has been ordered, and will doubtless arrive shortly.

And Arranged in Convenient Shape for Its Readers-Curbstone Chat-Incidents of the Day, Etc.

An Eloquent Speech.—Atlanta visitors who were present at the imeeting of the Sunday School Association at Snellville, Gwinnett county, the other day, are loud in their praises of the Speech delivered by the orator of the day, Mr. John R. Cooper, of Macou. Mr. Cooper's theme was "Our Country," and he handled it so ably as to win the enthusiastic applause of his 2,000 hearers. Mr. Cooper has many triends in Atlanta who predict for him a brilliant career.

A Change.—Detective Wilson, who has been connected with the Shackelford Detective Agency for several years past, has severed his connection with that institution. Mr. Wilson has made a fine record as a detective and his many friends will wish him luck in anything that he undertakes.

Has Gone to Missouri - Dr. L. D. Carpenter has gone to Excelsior Springs, Mo., to attend the Na-tional Association of dental colleges.

Coasting "the Circle."—Yesterday afternoon Mr. L. D. Nelson, the efficient superintendent of the Fulton County Street Electric line, carried all the children at the Home of the Friendless around the nine-mile circuit. They spent a delightfu afternoon, gathering flowers, visiting Ponce de Leon springs and other places. This was a gracious act by one of Atlanta's best young men.

Railroad People Here.—Mr. B. W. Wrenn, general passenger agent of the East Tennessee, was here vesterday.

Mr. D. J. Mullaney, division agent of the Queen and Crescent, Chattanooga, was in Atlanta yesterday.

day,
Major W. F. Shellman, traffic manager of the Central, passed through Atlanta yesterday. After a stopover at Tallulah Major Shellman goes on to New York, where he attends the meeting of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association on the 6th. Back from Texas—Mr. William B. Jaynes, formerly of South Carolina, now of Sherman, Tex., passed through the city yesterday en route to his old home. Mr. Jaynes is one of the most promising young attorneys of Texas. His friends here will be glad to learn of his wonderful success.

Colonel Bob Rankin Here.—There are a great many people in Atlanta who have a welcome always for Colonel Bob Rankin, of Gordon, as was evidenced by a lot of hand-shaking about the hotels yesterday. The colonel was here.

"Talking about the senatorship," he remarked, "the people up our way think this is a joke about opposing Gordon. Of course, it wasn't made an issue in our election, but the popular sentiment of our county is overwhelmingly for Gordon. We never did go back on him up there, and we are not going to. You can put that in your pipe and smoke it."

Building a Wigwam.—In the windows of the East Tennessee ticket office, yesterday, was a picture of the Wigwam, the magnificent new hotel being built at Indian Springs.

Ground was broken last Monday, and a large force of hands is steadily at work on it now.

The design is a beautiful one, and the lesses say they are going to make Indian Springs, even more than it used to be, the most popular resort in the southern states.

To Help a Comrade.—Mr. G. C. Elfe issues a card reading: All subscribers to the Mehaffy fund, and others who are disposed to aid a noble cause; are requested to meet at the headquarters of the Southern Travelers Association, Saturday night at 8 o'clock, sharp.

G. C. ELFE, Chairman.

DRY, COLD AIR.

The "Alaska" Refrigerator, the Choice of the People of the There no longer exists in the minds of the public any doubt that the ALASKA REFRIGERATOR loes produce dry, cold air in its provision chamber. A practical use for many years in various ountries and climates has proved beyond question that its theory is correct. The peculiar and scientific construction of the ALASKA creates a thorough and constant circulation, by which all vapors arising from foods in the provision chamber are condensed in the ice pan, and run off with the melting ice. Most refrigerators are so constructed that vapors from various kinds of food are chilled to bead drops of water within the provision chamber Hence such refrigerators are always damp and deleterious to health; and hence the instruction to frequently wipe the moisture from the pro rision chamber."

In the Alaska no vapors are allowed to remain: but, by a perfect circulation of air, they are drawn through the flues into the ice chest and condensed

By thus removing the vapor all odor is removed for the odor is in the vapor—and dry, pure, cold air falls into the provision chamber. The provision chamber of the Alaska never free from foul odor. It is on account of these excellent refrigerating qualities that the ALASKA has become noted for being entirely free from mould, or mildew, or unpleasant odors, regardless of the length of time perishable articles of food may have been kept

THE STOCK MARKET.

The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock

NEW YORK, August 1.—The effect of the action of the governors of the Bank of England in unexpectedly raising their minimum rate of discount, together with that of large engagements of rold for expart this week seemed this marriage to count, together with that of large engagements of gold for export this week, seemed this morning to have entirely passed away and generally favora-ble conditions, and while operations of the day were confined almost exclusively to the profes-sional element, there was as great indisposition to trade as at any time of late, and outside of Sugar Refineries and Silver Certificates, in which there Refineries and Silver Certificates, in which there is reported to be a bull pool, there was no animatian whatever during the day. The consent of Mesers. Kidder, Peabody & Co. to act in conjunction with the trustees on reorganization, inspired confidence in Sugar Refineries and shorts covered liberally throughout the day, although there was no doubt that there was also heavy realizing and that to some insiders the stock fluctuated rapidly and widely, but finally closed, with a net gain of 1%. After selling at 82%, Silver Certificates were again very active, but without material change in pice, though it was traded on a distinctly higher level than yeswas traded on a distinctly higher level than yes-terday. A pool is reported to have been made up to buy one million ounces, and the London market was higher, with a marked scarcity. In the reg-ular list Atchison was a weak point, and Cleve-land, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis a strong one, but final changes of neither were important. Edison Electric also failed to hold fig early gain. The close was dull, but firm, at insignificant changes from last evening's figures. Sales of listed 75,000, unlisted 69,000 shares.

Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Circular. MEMDATA, Frice & Co.'s Circular.

NEW YORK, August 1—[Special.]—The cotton market today has been extremely dull. The demoralization of the holders of August contracts, which led yesterday's decline, was checked by the steadiness of Liverpool, where, although there were only 5,000 bales of actual cotton sold, prices for futures were firm at restrains and actual cotton. for futures were firm at yesterday's figures. Eight bales of new cotton have been received at Galves-ton, and generally cloudy weather and threatened rains are reported throughout Texas. The distant positions continued to be quite freely sold for southern account, and the crop outlook along the Atlantic seaboard is now entirely brilliant. HUBBARD, PRICE & Co.

NEW YORK, August 1—The following is the comparative cotton statement for the week ending today:

THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Grain and Provisions.

Features of the Speculative Movement in CHICAGO, August 1-Wheat-The volume of business was only fair, and the feeling developed was nervous and feverish, but the tendency was toward lower prices. The decline brought out considerable long wheat, and the selling out of closing figures on 'change yesterday, Cooler weather here, and a growing impression that the damage both in this country and in Europe may rave been exaggerated, induced rather free selling Corn—There was a good trade in this market, and the feeling prevailing was weaker. The weakness was attributed mainly to reported rains in the west, and the rather free selling by a prominent local trader. The first trades were 11/4@11/20 under the closing prices of yesterday's session, the market was easy for a time, after which it firmed up 1½c, reached ¾c, ruled steady, and closed ½@1c lower than yesterday, Oats were traded in fairly, and an unsteady feeling prevailed. The weakness in corn caused feeling prevailed. The weakness in corn caused the market to open % all 1/2c lower, but a rally followed. Toward the close prices receded 1/4@1/2c, but rallied slightly and closed at a shade below yesterday's last sales.

Mess pork was dull. The opening sales were made at 10c decline, and a further reduction of 5@10c was submitted to. Later, prices rallied 15@17/2c, and the market closed steady at medium figures.

Lard—Trading was moderately active early in the day, and prices ruled 5@7/2c lower. Later, the market ruled stronger, accompanied with an advance of 2½/26c, and closed steady.

Short rib sides—Only a fair trade was reported. Early sales were at 2½c decline. Later, the market ruled steadier, accompanied with an advance of 2½/26c.

REGENSTEIN'S HAT . 18 18 FEET AROUND.

A Magnificent Millinery Float Drawn by Six Horses.

GRESS'S MASKED BATTERY A SENSATION.

The Committee Pushing Things from Headquarters.

TURPIN WHIRLS IN---HEIGHT OF FLOATS.

The festival grows in interest as it progresses. This morning Mr. I. C. Biesenthal shies a caster into the ring for J. J. Regenstein & Co., and Mr. G. V. Gress announces that he has brought back with him from the lumber region an idea that will overshadow anything yet developed.

Messrs. Regenstein & Co. will be represented by an elaborately designed float, richly fashioned of the handsomest millinery goods. The main feature will be a canopy composed of an immense lady's hat, eighteen feet in diameter, beautifully designed and claborately trimmed with the handsomest material in the line.

Beneath this hat will be six miniature milliners, in little girls, dressed in a pretty costume, and engaged in trimming miniature hats, which they will scatter among the assembled multitudes. The float be drawn by six horses magnificently equipped and caparisoned with the most elegant millinery.

Mr. Biesenthal received a letter yesterday from the factory, which is now making the hat, and the letter, which is a bona fide one, states that 100 hands are now at work on the immense hat, and the work Is being pushed with all possible haste.

"Our display," said Mr. Biesenthal, "will do credit to our business, and will be an ornament to the parade. We have spared neither pains nor expense to make an attractive float."

Mr. Gress preserves an ominous silence about his float.

"The idea came to me while I was in the train going down to see my new plant start up. I was at a loss to see what a wholesale lumber dealer could de, but I have something now which I will guarantee to equal anything in the procession. I am not telling my plans, but the rest of the exhibitors may look out,"

Mr. James R. Wylie says the Piedmont Exposition will be creditably represented. Indeed, the spirit of emulation has put everybody on the qui vive for suggestions, and every man is determined to be first. Nothing like the rivalry was ever seen in Atlanta. The Committee Pushing Things.

There was a good meeting of the executive committee yesterday. Mr. Miles Turpin, who was the recognized leader of the Twelveth Night Carnival in Atlanta some years ago, is again in the city after a ten days' absence, and has thrown himself into the festival with a hearty good will. He was present at the meeting of the committee yesterday, and gave valuable suggestions. By special request of the executive committee, Mr. Turpin will have an interview in Sunday's Constitution, in which he will make timely suggestions and give valuable hints about floats.

Mr. Fred Lewis is now the secretary of the executive committee, and is in charge of the correspondence at the headquarters in Captain West's office, on the Pryor street side of the Kimball house.

All communications or inquiries tending the parade will be sent to the executive committee at the above headquarters.

On yesterday a large number of postal cards were mailed to those who enlisted fying them of the requirements of the committee in giving notice and description of their floats by noon on the 9th. More cards will be sent out today.

The Height of Floats. An important question is raised by the fol-lowing letter from the Dixie Lumber Company: ATLANTA, Ga. August 1.—Mr. Elephant Editor: For the benefit of ourselves and others who intend having floats in the trade's display on the occasion of the midsummer festival, please let us know how high we can build our floats, and safely pass under all the wires that cross the streets along which the processing will many. Vants truly.

Per John Cooper, Sec'y and Treas. This letter was received too late to be submitted to the executive committee at its mecting yesterday afternoon. The question is an important one, for it will affect the line of march. The matter will be carefully considered by the committee this afternoon, and explicit information on this point will be given to the public in tomorrow's Constitution. MORE ABOUT HONDURAS.

Mr. James R. Hall, Who Lived There Once, Has a Word to Say.

Mr. Eugene Couch's experience in Honduras, as recited by him in The Constitution was extensively read.

And it has produced a champion for Honduras in Atlanta.

Mr. James R. Hall, civil and mining engineer, once lived in Honduras, and after reading Mr. Couch's recital, said:

"I would like to say, in justice to Honduras, that Mr. Couch, 'the survivor's experience,' which, I do not doubt, was a hard one, is no criterion by which to judge that country.

"Sacate, the place where Mr. Couch and his fellow-sufferers were located, is situated near the north coast, in a section of country which reliow-surferers were located, is situated near the north coast, in a section of country which is almost unexplored, it being such a dense wilderness, and so unhealthy that no one cares to live there, except a few Indians, alligators and reptiles. The lands are extremely rich, however, and when it is cleared makes the finest and most abundant crops of bananas in the world.

however, and when it is cleared makes the finest and most abundant crops of bananas in the world.

"Mr. Couch and his companions were very unfortunate in being induced to go to such a place, and it is quite natural that they are not much in love with that country. But they should lay the blame to their employers, and not to Honduras.

"Mr. Couch's description of Honduras only applies to the very worst vicinities, which form only a very small portion of the country. The interior and greater portion of Honduras is very different, in almost every respect, from this north coast section.

"There are many nice towns surrounded by beautiful valicys and table lands, which produce abundantly any crop that is desired. There are also towering mountains and deep gorges, abounding in minerals of most any kind, and there are portions of the country where you see nothing but these high mountains and deep ravines.

"There is no such thing as British and Spanish Honduras, but Belize and Honduras straight."

"Don Henry Pizzatti is not the commander of the army. He may be a sub "commandante" at Sacate, and have in charge a few Indians, as described by Mr. Couch, but General Li-as described by Mr. Couch, but General Lisandro Sanchez is commander-in-chief of the Honduras army under President Bogran, and in time of peace is always located at Teguzigalpa, the capital.

"The reason Mr. Couch had trouble in getting back to New Orleans is because New Orleans quarantines against all South and Central American ports every summer, but these fruit steamers are allowed to pass if they have no passengers aboard.

"But Mr. Conch only saw the worst s'de of it, and at the worst time of the year, and I don't and at the worst time of the year, and I don't blame him for not liking it. Honduras has no railroads, and its natural resources, which are great and numerous, have not been developed. General Luis Bogran is perhaps the best president Honduras has ever had, and if his administration could continue for a few years. ministration could continue for a few years he would do wonders in the development of the country. He is a man of great ability, full of the spirit of progress, and thoroughly awake to the condition and necessities of his people and country. He is very liberal and kindly disposed to foreigners, and encountrages to his utcountry. Hon. Mr. Hammond, of Orlando, is Stopping With Friends in the City. Dr. Edward M. Hammond, of Orlando, Fla., is visiting friends and relatives in the city. Mr.

Hammond is an Atlanta boy, and ten years ago he removed to Orlando, and since his removal there he has taken a very prominent part in the politics of the state.

he has taken a very prominent part in the politics of the state.

Mr. Hammond is now a member of the senate of the state of Florida, and his name has been very prominently mentioned in connection with the United States senatorship.

The term of Senator Call expires during the present year, and south Florida claims a representation in the councils of the nation. Mr. Hammond stands a very good chance of being elected, as he has proven himself one of the finest legislators in the state, and the people of southern Florida are for him to a man.

In case Mr. Hammond should be elected, his friends here will be very greatly gratified, as he is a man of acknowledged ability, strict integrity, and well worthy to hold any office in the gift of the people of Florida. In electing him to that position they will have nothing to regret. His genial manners and upright conduct have won him many friends in the state during his public life.

DEATH OF MR. JOSEPH STEWART

A Prominent Citizen and Well-Beloved Christian Gentleman Gone to Rest. Mr. Joseph Stewart, of the firm of Swann, Stewart & Co., Covington, Ga., died at 12 o'clock Thursday night, at his residence in Covington and was buried yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. Stewart was forty-four years old and one of the most prominent and successful merchants in the state. He was a steward in the Methodist church and a Christian gentleman in every sense of the term.

He was taken with tonsilitis about a month ago, and an abcess formed in his throat and caused blood poison, from which he died.

He married a sister of A. M. and Boykin Robinson, of this city, and had an extensive acquaintance here.

son, of this city, and had an extensive acquaintance here.

Mr. Stewart's death was one of touching sadness. He was perfectly conscious to the last, and called his relatives and friends around rim, told them all good-bye. He then asked to be turned over, and died in twenty minutes.

Just before his death he told his friends the little amounts that he, as steward of the church, held in custody, and requested that these sums should be turned over.

Then he said, "Tell my brother Jeff, who is in Louisville, good-bye, I will meet him on the other side."

Mr. Stewart leaves a widow with several children, the oldest of whom is seventeen or eighteen years old. He leaves his family well provided for in his handsome estate.

PARIS PRAISES "PARKER'S." A late issue of Galignani's Messeeger makes the following comment on the new regime at the Parker house, Boston, so long known as one of the first hotels in the world:

ton, so long known as one of the first hotels in the world:

"Bostonians are delighted that the Parker house, which all the inhabitants of the hub regard as one of its institutions, has passed successfully through the trying financial crisis of the past few weeks, and has come into the hands of Mr. J. Reed Whipple, who is pronounced a prince of landlords. One of the enthusistic journals of the Massachusetts capital declares that 'Mr. Whipple is emphatically the right man in the right place at Parker's. The traveling world can appreciate the pleasure which Boston feels over this new lease of life accorded to the Parker house, for a good hotel and a good landlord are rare in every city on the globe."

The mere fact of the change attracting European attention shows how world-wide is the reputation of the Parker hourse. Mr. Whipple is acknowledged as the most able hotel man in America, and "Parker's" under his management will become more popular than ever.

COTTON BAGGING.

T WILL BE USED EXCLUSIVELY BY THE GEORGIA STATE ALLIANCE.

Jute Is Four Times Cheaper, But It Is Ruled Clear Out-Fifty Thousand Yards of Cotton Bagging Already Shipped.

Cotton bagging is the stuff. The farmers of Georgia will never use jute

The next crop will be clothed almost totally in cotton bagging, and jute will be thrown clear away. The Alliance Exchange is basy, continu

Mr. J. O. Wynn, business agent for the Alliance Exchange, has already shipped 50,000 yards of cotton bagging to the alliances of Georgia, and is busily occupied filling new orders for the article every day. "It will be used exclusively this season," he said yesterday, "and although jute bagging has become about one-fourth as costly as cotton bagging, none of it will be used. "This would seem strange at first, but when you consider the matter, you will find that it is the best plan for the farmers to use cotton bagging even though it is about four times the price of jute."

"What is the price of cotton bagging now?" THE COST OF JUTE AND COTTON BAGGING. "It is selling for 16 cents a pound, or about 12½ cents per yard. Jute has gone down to 4 cents a pound or 8 cents a yard. The reason that it is cheaper for the farmers to cover their cotton with cotton bagging rather than with jute, is because the consumption of cotton is ncreased considerably by using the cotton

"This naturally increases the demand for cotton, and hence is profitable to the farmers, by raising the price of cotton. If that rise is only half a cent, the difference between the cost of jute and cotton bagging is counterbalanced. You can see, therefore, the advisability of the farmers using cotton bagging. "Jute will not be known as a cover for cotton five years from now. It will never be used again for this purpose. Cotton bagging has whipped the fight for all time."

TO ESTABLISH A FACTORY. A movement will be brought before the meeting of the State Alliance, which is to be held in Atlanta soon, to establish a cotton bagging factory in this state for the alliance. The matter has been talked of before, but will be brought before the next meeting in a business-like shape.

Colonel R. L. Burks, state secretary of the alliance, is a leader in the movement, and says the indications are that the state alliance will take up the scheme. He says the plan is to build a large cotton bagging factory at some central point in the state, the place not having yet been definitely Chapter 1: Weak, tired, no appetite. Chapter 2: Took Hood's Sarsaparilla. Chapter 3: Strong, cheerful, hungry.

ABOUT THE CAPITOL.

TWELFE COUNTY TAX RETURNS COME IN AND NEVER A DECREASE.

The Wire-Grass Counties Keep Up the Wonderful Increase Column—Minor Matters About the Capitol.

The Oyster Commission!
Georgia has one—the first in her history. This is a fitting recognition of perhaps the econd most important industry in the state. The other southern states have taken great care of this industry, fostering and protecting t in every possible way.

This is Georgia's first step in that direction. he commissioners are: Colonel William Garrard, of Savannah.

Hon. James Postell, of Glynn. Hon. D. R. Proctor, of Camden. The main duties of the commission are to examine into the conditions of the oyster industry along the Georgia coast, and to recommend to the next legislature such changes as they deem proper. We Certainly Grow. The tax returns keep coming in to the compoller-general's office, and the wiregrass counties are breaking the record. The increase is phenomenal! Twelve more counties came in vesterday and very single one of them shows an increase.

Muscogee went up $1,589,710. And so it goes—Coffee over $200,000; Berrien, $377,000; Colquitt, $215,000, or nearly 50 per cent; Ware, $386,000, more than 20 per cent; Laurens, $278,000. Of the twelve counties, seven show an in crease exceeding 10 per cent.

This is yesterday's list: Muscogee	$15,000,098 13,414,388
Соптее	1,585,710 1,751,300 1,450,501
Chattooga	300,799 2,121,179 2,056,762
Berrien	64,417 2,031,004 1,053,659
Ogleth orpe	377,345 1,673,012 1,628,848
Pike	44,164 2,745,640 2,687,181

24,183 1,306,658 1,271,270 That makes a net increase of $3,513,242 for these In all, eighty-six counties have been heard

The aggregate net increase is $13,722,737.

Under One Head.

A. D. Harrell was yesterday commissioned tax collector of Camden county in place of Mr. Brimbaum, resigned.

E. W. Strick and, a white man of Lumpkin county, sentenced at the March term of 1882, in Dawson county, for bastardy, was pardoned yesterday. The man has always protested his innocence. His conviction was upon the tesinnocence. His conviction was upon the tes-timony of the mother of the child, a lewd and disreputable character, leaving reasonable

William Webb, colored, sentenced for three years from Hancock for receiving stolen goods, was pardoned yesterday on account of good conduct. His time would have expired next

Watch Your Health.

When you feel chilly and feverish, take when you feet chilly and reversar, take warning. An ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure. A dose or two of Smith's Tonic Syrup, made by Dr. John Bull, of Louisville, Ky., taken at this time may ward off a dangerous or probably fatal illness. It has an immediate beneficial effect upon the mucous embrane and circulatory system. use will frequently ward off an attack of pneumonia. A slight cold will be gone in the morning if a dose of this remedy is taken at night. It is truly a houshold necessity and no family can afford to be without it. It tastes good and children will ask for it. It is in fact a great discovery, having all the good effects of quinine and none of its evit qualities. It is harmless to the most delicate invalid and will not derange the system. It is a certain cure for chills and fever, colds, influenza, la grippe and all other effects of malarial influence.

To Young Mothers,

Especially those who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we would say a few words: We offer you, not the stupor caused by chloroform, with risk of death for yourself or your dearly loved longed-for offspring, but "Mother's Friend." a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate, in a most magical way, the pains, hor rors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. Its ingredients are absolutely harmless and the most ignorant person could not possibly do any harm with it, either to mother or child. Should be used a few weeks before confinement. The use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. One bottle may not cure "right off" a complaint of years; persist until a cure is effected. As a general rule, improvement follows shortly after beginning the use of this medicine. With many people, the effect is immediately noticeable; but some constitutions are less susceptible to medicinal influences than others, and the curative process may, therefore, in such cases, be less prompt. Perseverance in using this remedy is sure of its reward at last. Sooner or later, the most stubboru blood diseases yield to
